Final Rites Held For Hager's Brother

Thomas A. Hager, 47, of Elkhart, Ind., a brother of Howard Hager, of Kings Mountain, died March 2 as a result of injuries received March 4 when the bicycle he was riding collided with a truck.

Funeral services for the Bessemer City native were held in Elkhart Saturday. Other survivors include his wife and five children, his father Joe A. Hager of Bessemer City, four additional brothers, Rufus and Anderson Hager, of Bessemer City, and Marvin and Heman Hager, of Cherryville, and a sister, Mrs. William Morrow, of Gastonia.

Mr. Hager was on his way home from a new job in Elkhart when the accident occurred. Driver of the truck was not held for charges.

He was a member of Augustana Evangelical Lutheran church. His brothers and sisters attended the final rites.

More than 50 million baby chicks are started by North Carolina poultrymen each year.

Aiding WHO's Fight Against Influenza

A close watch on the seasonal increase in influenza and on the possible danger of epidemics is being kept by the World Influenza Center in London, which the World Health Organization, a Specialized Agency of the United Nations, established in 1947. Above are shown laboratory experts at the Center inoculating a ferret with garglings received from Yugoslavia. After examination and typing of the virus, the information obtained will be sent to Yugoslavia and details of the world incidence of influenza will be made known.

Out of Darkness—Hope

The joyous Feast of Easter brings a renewal of hope to a waiting world—a revival of faith that the light of truth will prevail over the darkness of evil... that through love and good deeds, mankind can rise above its tribulations. That is the Way of the Cross. And wherever the Cross has been carried, men of medicine and pharmacy have stood in its shadow bringing new hope to the afflicted... new promise of relief from pain and illness. "Helping thy neighbor" is—and always will be—the ideal of the twin professions of medicine and pharmacy.
