Dessert Bridge For Miss Stowe

A pink and white dominating bridal theme was carried out in the lovely floral arrangements gracing the home of Mrs. Martin Harmon on Tuesday night, when she entertained as a pre-nuptial courtesy for Miss Betsy Stowe, bride-elect.

When the guests arrived they found their places at small tables where the accent was placed on colorful bouquets of pink carnations. Each guest found her place marked with a bridal tally, further emphasizing the bridal motif. Mrs. Harmon was assisted in serving homemade ice cream and cookies.

After several progressions of bridge high score was held by Mrs. Jimmy Spivey with Miss Jean Lynch receiving second high.

Miss Stowe was remembered with china in her chosen pattern.

Mrs. Willis Hostess To Her Bridge Club

Mrs. J. K. Willis delightfully entertained members of the Double-Deck bridge club and several additional guests at her home Tuesday night.

Bowls of spring flowers accented the appointments in the living and dining rooms; purple predominating in the living room and yellow in the dining room.

When guests arrived, they found their places at several small tables placed in the two rooms and Mrs. Willis was assisted in serving a salad plate and dessert course, carrying out St. Patrick's colors.

Mrs. George Moss was invited to play bridge. Mesdames R. D. Goforth, B. F. Beam, W. W. Souther and C. A. Butterworth were invited for rook.

When scores were tallied Mrs. Moss had excelled at bridge with Mrs. John Rudisell runner up for second high, Mrs. J. M. Rhea capturing the floating prize.

In rook high score prize was presented Mrs. C. A. Butterworth, second high going to Mrs. W. W. Souther.

Mrs. McGill Fetes Twin-Table Club

Mrs. J. H. Arthur and Mrs. G. W. Mauney were invited to play with members of the Twin-Table Bridge club Tuesday night when it met with Mrs. N. F. McGill at her home on West Mountain street. For the social event the home was decorated with bowls of spring flowers.

Covers were laid when guests arrived and Mrs. McGill was assisted in serving a salad plate with baked ham, hot toasted cheese sandwiches with other accessories.

Bridge was played through four

Two Are Hostess For Methodist Circle

Circle Number 2 of Central Methodist church met Monday night, March 12th, at the home of Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr., with Mrs. T. W. Grayson as joint hostess. Twelve members attended this meeting.

Mrs. Gault, president, presided over the business session. Mrs. Sam Sullings was program chairman for the meeting.

Minutes were read and approved, and a financial report was given by the treasurer.

Members were urged to attend the Spiritual Life meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30.

During the social hour the hostesses served pleasing refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake, nuts, candy, Easter eggs and coffee.

The meeting adjourned with prayer.

Youth Choir Met With Barbara Gault

On Tuesday night, the Senior MYF met at the lovely home of Barbara Gault for youth choir rehearsal. Special music for the morning meetings of the MYF during Easter was arranged. Sonny Peeler is director, and Barbara Gault is pianist for the choir.

Last Sunday a double quartet rendered special music in the youth chapel. As the program was centered on Christian Service, the hymn, "Work For the Night is Coming", was sung by Jo Ann Falls. Program leader was Barbara Grantham. Worship center was a picture of Christ with a towel across one end, and a pitcher and basin on the table before it, depicting the service of Christ in washing his disciples feet.

progressions. When scores were counted high score for visitors was awarded Mrs. J. H. Arthur. Club high going to Mrs. O. W. Myers. Mrs. I. B. Goforth received the traveling prize.

Mrs. Davis Is Hostess To Club

Two tables grouped amid a display of spring flowers appointed for refreshments Friday afternoon when Mrs. S. O. Davis entertained the Fortnighters club and other guests at the Country Club. Prior to the games a dessert course was served.

When scores were tallied, it was found that Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., had compiled the highest score for visitors and Mrs. W. L. Bannessur for members, each receiving a gift.

Those playing other than members were Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr.,

Mrs. Paul Neisler and Mrs. H. S. Blackmer.

Over the past 10 years, to provide welfare aid to military personnel and their families, the American Red Cross has spent approximately $500,000, or nearly half the organization's total expenditure for this period.
