J. W. Clay Speaks To Book Clubs

The Home Arts Club entertained members of the Study Club and the Thursday Afternoon Book Club with a delightful meeting at the Women's club house Tuesday night.

The club house was most attractive with floral arrangements of gladiol, snapdragons, giant narcissus, sprays of judas and potted plants. The meeting was held in the ballroom. Across one end of the room, was a miniature picket fence entwined with purple wisteria.

Mrs. Paul Hendricks, president, welcomed the guests and presented Mrs. W. L. Pressly who introduced the speaker. In her introduction Mrs. Pressly said, "I might introduce our speaker as a poet, for he is, or I might introduce him as an author, for he is. He is also a publisher and a well traveled person but I take pleasure in presenting my friend, John Wesley Clay of Winston-Salem."

Mr. Clay spoke in a humorous vein on "High Adventure," which delighted his audience.

Mr. Howard Coble, director of public school music sang, "The Hills of Home," by Oscar Fox and "Home," an encore "Old Mother Hubbard." He was accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Herndon.

A social followed. The refreshment committee, served a congealed salad plate with hot tea. A sweet course was passed.

New Garden Club Is Organized

On Friday afternoon, March 30, at 3:30 p. m., a group of interested women met at the home of Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr., and organized a new Garden Club. Eleven women were present and five others sent their names to be added to the list of charter members.

The home was very lovely with attractive arrangements of spring flowers, jonquils, pansies, lilacs, and tulips were used in colorful display.

Mrs. Tim Hord called the meeting to order and presided. She turned the meeting over to Mrs. W. L. Pressly, president of the Kings Mountain Garden Club, who discussed the organization and projects of a new club.

The members chose the name of The Open Gate Garden Club and decided to meet on the third Wednesday of each month. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Clyde Kerns; Vice president, Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr.; Secretary - Treasurer, Mrs. Dickie Tate.

Charter members of the new club are: Mrs. Tim Hord, Mrs. Wendy Philfer, Mrs. B. T. Wright, Mrs. Clyde Kerns, Mrs. Dickie Tate, Mrs. T. L. Cashwell, Jr., Mrs. Arnold Kincaid, Mrs. Pete Barkeley, Mrs. Mack Gantt, Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr., Mrs. Tolly Shuford, Mrs. F. R. McCurdy, Mrs. Sean Stallings, Mrs. Garrison Goforth, Mrs. E. H. Crouch, Mrs. T. W. Grayson and Mrs. Nathan Reed.

The hostess served delicious refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, cake, coffee, and nuts.
