Miss Hamrick Party Honoree

The home of Mrs. R. G. Hamrick was made festive with sweet peas, verbena and other flowers Saturday night when she entertained with a miscellaneous shower as a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Marion Virginia Hamrick, bride-elect of August. As soon as Miss Hamrick arrived she was given a corsage of sweet peas.

Bridal games were played with the winners receiving hand painted vases.

After the games guests were invited into the dining room, a bridal doll was in the center of the table surrounding her were gaily wrapped packages. These were opened by the honoree and passed around for all to see.

Among the gifts was a chest of Encore silver, a gift of Mrs. Frank Glass.

The bridal colors of green and white were cleverly carried out in the salad course served the 35 guests present.

Miss Mildred Moss Saturday Bride Of Clyde O. Whetstine

Beauty and reverence marked the wedding held at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Temple Baptist Church in which Miss Mildred Louise Moss became the bride of Clyde O. Whetstine, both of Kings Mountain. The Rev. W. F. Monroe assisted by Rev. P. D. Patrick, officiated using the single ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an altar beautifully decorated in conventional green and white seven branched candelabras holding white tapers and floor baskets of white gladioli and baby's breath.

Mrs. Garrison Goforth rendered a program of wedding music. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a gown of white organdy in the popular ankle length, the full skirt was attached to a fitted bodice, Peter Pan collar, self covered buttons down the front. The three quarter length gloves were of nylon. Her finger length veil of illusion fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white satin prayer book topped with a white orchid showered with white satin ribbon streamers and baby's breath.

Miss Virginia Moss was her sisters only attendant, her gown was of mist blue organdy, fashioned as the brides. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and yellow carnations.

Ned McGill was the groom's best man and James Gibson and Earl Moss were ushers.

Costumes of Mothers
The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue with blue accessories and the bride groom's mother chose green with which she used white accessories. A corsage of red roses worn on the shoulder completed the costume of each.

Mrs. Whetstine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest E. Moss is a graduate of the Kings Mountain high school. Since her graduation she has been secretary for Lawyer J. R. Davis.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. V. C. Whitstine and the late Mr. Whitstine received his education in the Bessemer City schools. He served 42 months in World War II. Two years was spent in the Pacific area.

Miss Ray Humphries presided at the bride's register. After their return from a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Whetstine will be at home at 206 Cassler Street.
