Wright-Timms Vows Exchanged

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wright of Henderson, N. C. and Morrisville, Pa., announce the marriage of their daughter, Mary Helen to Eugene Joseph Timms, January 25, 1951.

Mrs. Timms will graduate Friday from W. C. U. N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Timms will be at home on the Grover Road after June 5th.

Auxiliary Met in Mauney Home

Mrs. Paul Mauney was hostess on Thursday night to members of the American Legion Auxiliary at her home on the Grover Road.

The devotional was given by Mrs. James Ware.

Mrs. Clarence Jolly, president, presided. Mrs. Sam Hamrick and Mrs. Dickie Tate were elected to attend the State Convention to be held in Asheville June 2.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served strawberry short cake and punch.

Graves-Barnes Engagement

Plans have been completed and announced this week for the wedding of Miss Zedie Graves, daughter of Mrs. J. F. Graves and the late Mr. Graves of Greensboro to W. Faison Barnes of Kings Mountain, son of Mrs. E. W. Barnes and the late Mr. Barnes of Pinetops.

The wedding will take place Thursday night, May 31, at the home of Miss Graves sister, Mrs. Robert McKie, College Park, Atlanta, Ga.

Senior MYF To Install Officers

Newly elected officers of the Sr. Methodist Youth Fellowship will be installed Sunday morning in the youth chapel of Central Methodist Church, in an impressive installation service preceded by a worship service. These officers are: Reginald Murray, President; Ann Mayes, Vice-president; Dorothy Goforth, Secretary; and Shirley Falls, Treasurer. Special music will be rendered by Doris Jolly and Barbara Grantham.

Art Students Exhibit Work

The art exhibit of Mrs. H. L. Campbell's classes given Tuesday in the Woman's Club was one of the outstanding features of the week.

Free hand water painting, crayon painting, charcoal and the sketches in pen and ink were most remarkable for first year students. The creative ability shown in the carnivals, Indian heads, etc., leads us to believe we have real artists in the making.

Mrs. Campbell has three classes one, 7-9 years of age, one 10-12 years and those over 12. The work in each class was very out standing and each one deserves a special mention.

Mrs. Kincaid Fetes Open Gate Club

The Open Gate Garden Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Arnold Kincaid, 14 members were present.

A profusion of sweet peas with other cut blossoms were used in pleasing arrangements.

During the business it was voted to become a member of the Federation. Several projects and plans for raising money were discussed. Mrs. C. E. Cash was welcomed as a new member.

There was not a program as the members wanted to attend the "Melody of Spring" given by the Kings Mountain Garden Club.

A dessert course was served with nuts.

Miss Summers Gives Recital

Miss Frances Summers, soprano of Charlotte and Kings Mountain, was the guest artist at the meeting of the Lincolnton Music Club Friday night in Lincolnton at the home of Mrs. Hunter Mauney.

Miss Summers, who was accompanied by Miss Virginia Summers, studied voice at Salem and later at the University of Texas. She also has been coached by Oscar Fox, composer, of San Antonio, Texas.

Hostesses at the club meeting were Mrs. Jack Ramsey, Mrs. Dan Boyd, Mrs. C. B. Newton and Mrs. Robert McLean. Approximately 100 guests were present.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Wood and children of Kannapolis were Tuesday night guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hamrick.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Miller of Clarkton will be weekend guests of Mrs. J. S. Evans Saturday. Rev. and Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Aubrey Mauney and Mrs. Evans will attend a concert at Davidson College by Miss Patricia Muncel.

Miss Kathryn O'Farrell of Washington, D. C. arrives Friday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. O. C. O'Farrell.

Teachers Hold Final Meeting

Teachers from all white schools in the Kings Mountain unit met Tuesday afternoon in the high school cafeteria.

The superintendent discussed problems involved in closing the school year. He stressed the importance of making reviews and final examinations contribute to further education rather than merely finding out what had already been learned.

In discussing promotions, he suggested that physical, social and emotional factors, as well as chronological, mental and achievement factors be considered.

Mrs. Evans Gives Series Of Parties

Charming in every detail were the parties given this week by Mrs. J. S. Evans. On Monday guests were invited for three tables of bridge.

Bowls of yellow roses and roses and larkspur were used to create a festive air for the occasion. Tables were appointed for refreshments. Little nosegays were on each table and a salad course with accessories was served before the progressions.

High score and the floating prize went to Mrs. Fred Plonk. Mrs. H. C. Mayes receiving low score award.

Others playing were Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt, Mrs. H. E. Lynch, Mrs. L. E. Abbott, Mrs. Amos Dean, Mrs. Paul Neisler, Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, Mrs. Jay Patterson, Mrs. Phillip Padgett and Mrs. George H. Mauney.

Tuesday, Mrs. Evans entertained with a bridge luncheon complimenting members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. Those playing were Mesdames Hayne Blackmer, Hunter Neisler, Halbert Webb, W. L. Ramsey, George Lattimore, Charles Dilling Hugh Ormand and Mrs. Don Blanton, special guests.

Sweet peas were used at vantage points in the party rooms, each table was centered with a miniature nosegay.

Mrs. Hayne Blackmer held high score for the afternoon with Mrs. Hunter Neisler winning second high and the floating prize.

Punch was served on the open porch in the back from a large bowl nestled in mock oranges and cut fancy slices of lemons.

The cut flowers used in the home were later sent to the Kings Mountain hospital.

Callers came from Gastonia, Roanoke, Va., Charlotte, Bessemer City, Mooresville, Troutman, Forest City, Shelby, Greer, White Oak, Chester, Gaffney, York, Union, Greenwood, S. C., St. Augustine, Fla., Statesville, and Cherryville.

home in the Herndon Apts. Spring flowers with roses predominating were used as room decorations. A salad plate was served with tea.

High scorer for the afternoon was Mrs. Bruce McDaniel with Mrs. Tolly Shuford runner up for second high.

Contract Club Met In Carpenter Home

Mrs. Jim Mercer and Mrs. Bruce McDaniel were invited to play with members of the Contract Bridge Club, Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Charles Carpenter, Jr. entertained at her

Melody Of Spring Given At Dogwood

The beautiful suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neisler was the setting for a lovely party Wednesday afternoon sponsored by the Kings Mountain Garden Club. "Melody Of Spring" was the theme carried out in the decorations and entertainment.

As you entered the spacious garden soft music filled the air. On the open terrace just before you entered the home were the most outstanding flower arrangements depicting the theme the club had chosen.

"I Love Life," by Mana-Zucca, Infancy and Childhood, — arrangement by Mrs. John Cheshire, Maturity and Age — Mrs. W. L. Pressly; Youth and Adulthood, Mrs. Verion Crosby.

"One Alone," Mrs. Drace Peeler; "By a Meadow Brook," Mrs. George Houser; "Spring Song," by Mendelshohn, Mrs. J. E. Herndon; "Elfin Dance," by Grig, Mrs. J. B. Keeter; "To A Wild Rose," by McDowell, Mrs. George H. Mauney; "Woodland Sketches" by McDowell, Mrs. Phillip Padgett; "By The Sea," by Arensky, Mrs. Howard Jackson; "The Children's Hour" by Wing, Mrs. W. L. Ramsey; "Rustle of Spring," by Sinding, Mrs. Carl F. Mauney; "In a Chinese Garden" by Cotta, Mrs. J. L. McGill.

"Who," by Kern, Mrs. Dan Finger; "The Flowers that Bloom in the Spring," by Mikado, Mrs. Carl Mayes; "Home Sweet Home," Mrs. Hunter Neisler. "Memories," Mrs. W. L. Pressly; "Wishing for an Old Oaken Bucket," Mrs. J. A. Neisler and Mrs. M. A. Ware.

The dances given by the little girls and boys of Mrs. Coman Falls dancing school representing the Birds and Butterflies brought forth a tremendous applause.

The members of the Garden Club received throughout the home and gardens. Mrs. Dan Finger, dressed as a gypsy was at the well where you put in your free will offering which the club will use in their project of beautifying the grounds of the Kings Mountain Hospital. Each one was given a slip with a fortune on it.

"Just mention a garden," said a good friend the other day, "And you have made a friend for life. I do not believe there is any subject that comes closer to the heart of the average person than that of gardening." As you watched the crowds browse through the lovely gardens of the Neislers admiring the roses, snapdragons, pansies, geraniums, and other blooming flowers too numerous to mention you felt you were in fairyland.

Punch was served on the open porch in the back from a large bowl nestled in mock oranges and cut fancy slices of lemons.

The cut flowers used in the home were later sent to the Kings Mountain hospital.

Callers came from Gastonia, Roanoke, Va., Charlotte, Bessemer City, Mooresville, Troutman, Forest City, Shelby, Greer, White Oak, Chester, Gaffney, York, Union, Greenwood, S. C., St. Augustine, Fla., Statesville, and Cherryville.
