Methodist Have Children's Home Day

Sunday was Children's Home Day at Central Methodist church, with Supt. O. V. Woosley and Mrs. Woosley, eleven of the twelve children sponsored by this church, and a nurse from the Children's Home in Winston-Salem as guests during the Sunday School hour and at the morning worship. They were guests also at the Church Picnic at Lake Montonia at 1:30 p. m. when a large number enjoyed fellowship together, and plenty of good food.

The sponsored children sat with their sponsors during the morning worship, and were introduced to the congregation, by Supt. Woosley, who called each child with the sponsoring couple, or President of the sponsoring class, to the front of the church. It was indeed a happy occasion for all. A photographer was on hand to make pictures of the group and of individual children

Immediately after church. Four of the children came ahead of time, on Thursday, with Rev. and Mrs. Brendall, and visited with their sponsors until Sunday. These were: Hoyt Brooks, 9, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis; Celua Vaughn, 7, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daugherty; Claude McKinney, 7, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Payne, and Judith Vaughn, 6, sponsored by Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Brendall. Due to illness, one of the children was unable to come Sunday, little John Vaughn, 2, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Payseur. The other children who came Sunday were James Bright, 16 (Young Adults), Joan Cox, 16 (Men's Bible Class), Louise Williams, 15, Meth. Youth Fellowship, Michael Nesbit, 7 (Mr. and Mrs. George Black), Joan Vaughn, 4, (Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Peele), Dennis Wicker, 4 (Daughters of Wesley), and Doris Jean, Godman, 8, (Mr. and Mrs. Hill Carpenter.)

Mrs. Griffin Is Rook Club Histess

Mrs. E. W. Griffin was hostess to members of the One High Rook Club and several other guests at her home Thursday night. When guests arrived they found their places at small tables in the living and dining rooms, where the accent was placed on numerous bouquets of mixed cut flowers.

Four progressions of rook were played. When scores were added, Mrs. C. A. Butterworth was recipient of visitor's high score award. Mrs. W. G. Grantham received the consolation award.

When cards were laid aside, covers were laid and each of the small tables was centered with a miniature vase of mixed flowers. Mrs. Griffin was assisted in serving homemade cake, ice cream, nuts and a fruit drink.

Special guests were Mesdames J. K. Willis, C. A. Butterworth, D. G. Littlejohn and Y. F. Thornburg.

Cleaner verses by MACK

A man who's known as hardly lavish. Is our close friend, Sandy McTavish.

And so we think it's fine approval. When Sandy needs a spot removal.

Hardly a tuppence will he spend. Unless it is to some good end.

"Hoot man," sez he. "For greater saving. My dirty kills, I'm always lavin' at."
