(Continued From Page One) with speeding, was fined $10 and costs. Curtis Smith, 32-year-old Negro arrested on June 22 by Officer A. C. Stewart and charged with speeding, taxed with costs and prayer for judgment continued. Thomas McQueen, 19-year-old Negro of Charlotte, arrested on June 24 by officers Ellison and Hawkins and charged with speeding and running red light, fined $25 and costs. Z. A. Merrier, 38-year-old Negro of Gastonia, arrested on June 20 by officers Street and Fulton, charged with running a red light, fined $10 and costs. Charles L. Carroll, on three warrants charging him with driving drunk, driving with improper license plate and assault on a female, requested a trial by jury. Bond was set at $500. Edward Jackson was confined to jail for 30 days after he was found guilty of breaking into a store with intent to steal and injury to real property. Prayer for judgment was continued against Robert Freno Ramsey, arrested by Officer Stewart and June 22 and charged with passing at intersection. Prayer for judgment was continued for 2 years against Charles Carroll Niedringhaus, of Shelby, arrested by Officer Stewart on June 24, and charged with passing at an intersection. George McDonald, arrested on charges of illegal possession and transporting of non-taxed paid whiskey, and driving without license, was fined $50 and costs. Adams, who farms 10-acres of cotton for Grady and Greer Cash near Kings Mountain Airport, said he had "farmed cotton ever since I was big enough." Mailman Bryan Hord also brought in a bloom, sent by Grady Cash and from the same acreage. Mr. Hord, who carries mail route two, said he had not seen any other cotton blooms on his route. Adams reported that the 10-acres had "good season (rain) but the rain kept us from plowing a week or more—then we would plow a couple of days and it would rain again." A tenant farmer for Floyd Herndon for 12 years, Adams purchased a two-acre plot and house near Compact school and for the past two years did not plant any cotton but raised truck crops. His wife died May 30. They had no children. When asked if he had sprayed his cotton, Adams said, "I've sprayed once and there is no sign of boll weevil. All that stuff is fatten the weevil and kill the man. What you got to do is to ask the Lord to take care of your crop. The Lord put the weevil here." At his Compact home, Adams still raises truck items including "a roasting ear patch," sweet potatoes, watermelons, tomatoes, okra, cantaloupes and beans. He has two hogs. He reports that the 10-acres should be in full bloom by July 4th. Burlington Mills, Inc., Phenix plant softball team completed the first round of Men's Softball league play undefeated and started off the second round with a bang, downing Craftsman 13 to 5 on Monday for their ninth straight win. Bob Huffstetler led the Spinners at the plate with 3 for 5. Junior Bennett had 2 for 3 and Luther Bennett, 2 for 5, including a homer. Roy Pearson scattered six hits over the route for the winners but Wallace Shockley gave up 10 hits and 13 walks for the losers. Largest crowd of the season was on hand for the battle. Rocky Ford had 2 for 4 for Craftsman. Umpire Tillman Pearson tossed Bud Reynolds and Coley Guyton out of the game for arguing. On Thursday, June 21, Burlington downed Margrace 7 to 3 to finish out the first round of league play undefeated. Pearson held the losers to four hits, two each by Cloninger and Pink Ware. He walked seven and had a two-hit shutout working until the seventh. Jim Conner and Bruce Thornburn each had 2 for 3 for Burlington, one of Conner's being a homer. Coley Guyton had 2 for 4. Ware walked three while giving up nine hits. Craftsman downed the American Legion 17 to 4 on June 21 as Wallace Shockley held the losers to a hit by Tignor and got 2 for 3 at the plate himself to pace the 11-hit Craftsman attack.
