MORE ABOUT Hiring-Firing

Missioner James Layton, with some show of temper, said, "I think we should have some understanding about hiring and firing. If I'm going to get credit for things like this, I've got to have something to say about hiring them. Far as I know, Floyd's o. k."

The board originally delegated all personnel matters to Mr. Fuller, with exception of the police department. Later it delegated him the full authority, but Mayor Garland still Monday night remarked that it was illegal to delegate those powers to anyone.

Mr. Layton asked City Attorney Davis who had the authority, and he suggested that employment matters should be handled by the board in full harmony and that Mr. Fuller should not be shackled with that responsibility.

Mr. Pearson remarked, "These men (Ellison and Thornburg) had been given a notice, and when that notice was up they should have gone."

favor remaining "as is". The pastor said he knew of only one elder who favored amalgamation with another group.

One elder of Bethany A. R. P. church told the HERALD after the Synod was well-pleased, and a similar report was made by members of the large Clover A. R. P. church.

The OBSERVER story said that some Charlotte churches might present letters of resignation to the next meeting of First Presbytery. Generally speaking the pro-merger movement has been spear-headed by Charlotte area pastors and laymen, beginning several years ago when a church-splitting argument raged on the proposition hymns legal for church music.

The hymn-singing was made optional about three years ago. Attending the Tuesday evening session from Kings Mountain, in addition to Mr. Pressly, were J. L. McGill, M. H. Harmon, Sr., M. A. Ware, W. S. Fulton, Sr., Campbell Philfer, Lewis Hovis, I. G. Patterson and W. E. Blakely.

Boys Baseball Loop Off To Flying Start

Boys Recreation Baseball league play got underway here last week with some 120 boys participating in the program.

Mauney interests stomped three opponents as they slammed out 35 hits for 36 runs in the games. Falling victims to the slants of Anderson, left-hander, and Huffstickler, right-hander, were Reynolds Motors, McCurdy Cleaners and Park-Grace. Will Grice is coach of the Mauney nine.

Craftspun, coached by Ellis King, lost to George Sellar's Park-Grace nine 10 to 7 but came back to top McCurdy 19-1 on a neat one-hitter by Pitcher Green.

No report had been received yesterday on progress of Reynolds Motors, coached by Rhea Barber, and Burlington, coached by Tillman Pearson.

All boys interested in taking part in the program are urged to contact one of the team coaches or Commissioners Red Layton or Bruce Thorburn.

ments arose and City Attorney J. R. Davis said, "No, it's not legal, the Supreme Court having held that public welfare is the duty of the state and counties. However, you could probably pay it and get by with it, if you wanted to."

The board subtracted from the contingency fund $1,800 for billing service for the utilities departments, but the addition of the $20,000 left a total for contingencies at $19,701. By resolution, the board will be in position to appropriate this sum to whatever purpose it wishes. Indications Monday night were that much of it would be used to build a warehouse for storing equipment.

Other items budgeted in a total of $21,100 for capital outlay are: purchase of a loading device, $8,000; purchase of a motorcycle, $1,000; purchase of kitchen equipment for the fire department (some of it already on order) $600; half ton pick-up truck, $1,500; sewer survey, $2,500; water and sewer extensions, $4,500; electrical system survey, $3,000.

The budget was adopted unanimously on motion of Commissioner Lloyd E. Davis, seconded by Commissioner James (Red) Layton, with the motion also including setting of the tax rate and poll tax rate.

PRE-PAYMENT SLOW
City tax pre-payments slowed during the past week, and brought a reminder from Act-Clerk O. T. Hayes, Sr., that the one-and-one-half percent discount period expires July 31. In August, the discount rate is one percent.
