Roses and other cut flowers enhanced the attractiveness of the living room, where guests assembled at tables arranged for bridge.

Cokes and nuts were served during the progressions and after the games iced watermelon was served.

Mrs. Claud Hambricht and Mrs. Sam Stallings received high and second high score awards.

Mrs. G. W. White, a new member. Mrs. S. O. Kirby assisted the hostess in serving tempting refreshments.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES C. GIBSON

Miss Virginia Moss Becomes Bride Of James C. Gibson In Church Ceremony

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized at the Temple Baptist Church on Saturday, July 21, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening when Miss Virginia I. Moss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Moss, became the bride of James C. Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gibson.

Rev. W. F. Monroe, pastor of the church, heard the exchange of vows. A setting of unusual beauty was achieved by use of stately floor baskets filled with white gladioli which were posed before a background of greenery, grouped with cathedral tapers in branched candelabras.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Garrison Goforth.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, F. E. Moss, and Eugene Gibson was his brother's best man. Ushers were Clyde Whitstine and Solan Moss.

The Bride's Gown
The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over white satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, a yoke of nylon illusion and a bouffant floor length skirt. She wore elbow length matching mitts, and her finger length veil of illusion had a brief over tier and was held in place by a tira of satir. She carried a prayer book topped with a purple orchid showered with purple streamers and baby's breath.

Mrs. Clyde Whitstine was her sister's only attendant. Her gown was of light green silk organza fashioned similar to the bride's.

Mrs. Moss, the bride's mother, wore a modish dress of pink linen with blue accessories. Mrs. Gibson, mother of the bridegroom was smartly attired in green. Her accessories were white and each wore a shoulder corsage of red rosebuds.

Miss Betty Moss and Miss Ray Humphries, presided at the bride's register.

Wedding Trip
Mr. and Mrs. Gibson left afterwards for a wedding trip through Florida and upon their return they will be at home at the Margrace. For traveling Mrs. Gibson chose a chic suit of orchid with which she wore white accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

The young couple were educated in the city schools. Mr. Gibson attended North Carolina State College. He is now employed with the Margrace Mill.

Shirley Ann Ware's Birthday Noted

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ware gave a birthday party for their daughter, Shirley Ann, on her 14th birthday, Saturday, July 21.

The group assembled at the Ware home and later Mr. and Mrs. Ware took them to the Shelby Recreation Park where swimming was the main attraction.

After the swim a picnic supper was enjoyed by the following, Jane Ormand, Betty Prince, Jackie Arnette, Elaine Goforth, Billie Babry.

Shirley Ann was the recipient of many lovely gifts which were opened before going to Shelby.

Mrs. Ramseur Fetes Bridge Club

Members of the Tuesday night bridge club held a pleasant meeting this week with Mrs. W. L. Ramseur as hostess at her home on West Mountain street.

After the games Miss Patty Neisler was found to be winner of the high score prize, and the consolation prize went to Mrs. Henry Neisler. Mrs. Charles Neisler, a recent bride was remembered with a gift.

Others playing were Miss Helen Hay, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Frank Hoyle, Mrs. O. P. Lewis
