Senior MYF Enjoys Banquet

On Thursday night, July 19, a banquet was served the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship, honoring especially the high school graduates and the boys who are entering service, by the Woman's Society of Christian Service. The church basement was attractive with tables arranged in a square. As "Nursery Rhymes" was the theme, attractive pictures and nursery rhymes were placed on the walls. At each place was an attractive figure of Humpty-Dumpty, and on the program cover was a drawing of Little Tommy Tucker. Tiny bowls of summer flowers centered the tables, on which were other Mother Goose decorations. These were prepared by the young people themselves.

The menu for the evening included juice, salad, fried chicken, green beans, creamed corn, hot rolls, iced tea, and apple pie a la mode. Invocation was given by Doris Jolly. Twenty-nine were present.

Mistress of Ceremonies was Shirley Falls, who gave a welcome to all, especially to the visitors, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Butterworth and Mrs. W. R. Craig. Mrs. Butterworth is President of the W.S.C.S. The group applauded the ladies in the kitchen.

With a verse, Shirley introduced the persons on the program. Miss Nancy Craig delighted the group with songs, tap dances, and toe dances. Walter Griffin, dressed as a preacher, gave an interesting talk on "Little Jack Horner". Lovely music was played on the piano by Barbara Gault, after which Reginald Murray rendered a solo, "I Said My Palamas" in a most captivating manner. Ann Mayes, dressed as the Old Lady Who Lived in a Shoe, told of what happened to all her children when they grew up, listing the graduates and boys entering service. Gifts of Pocket prayer books were presented to the honor guests by their teacher, Mrs. Baxter Payseur. Fifteen of the group were thus honored.

Speaker of the evening was Miss Betty Kate Jones, Youth Director for the summer, who made an inspiring talk on "Christian Vocation."

The program closed with the MYF Benediction.
