Miss Woodward Is Bride of Mr. Jackson

Miss Jo Ann Woodward of Shelby and James Charles Jackson of Lumberton and Philadelphia, Pa., were united in marriage Saturday morning, August 4, at 9 o'clock in a simple but impressive wedding held in Bethlehem Presbyterian church in Philadelphia. The Rev. Donald Crawford, pastor of the church, heard the couple pledge the vows of the single ring service.

A program of wedding music was rendered by the organist of the church.

The bride, a pretty fair-skinned brunette, was lovely in a summer suit of golden beige sacony fashioned with high collar and slim skirt. With it she wore a dark brown felt hat trimmed with matching velvet and flirt veil, other accessories in dark brown, and bronze baby orchids pinned at her shoulder.

Mrs. Jackson, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Herndon Woodward of Shelby and Joe Lee Woodward of Kings Mountain, is an attractive and popular girl. She attended Shelby high school and was graduated from the high school department of Wingate Junior college. She has completed most of the work of her junior year at Meredith college, and plans to finish work toward her degree at the University of Pennsylvania next year.

Mr. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Jackson of Lumberton, was graduated from the high school there and attended North Carolina State college, Raleigh, before serving in the U. S. Navy during World War II. He was graduated in electrical engineering from the Citadel in June this year and is now employed in electronics research with Philco Corporation in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will spend their honeymoon at Atlantic City, N. J., after which they will be at home at 1936 North 32nd street in Philadelphia.
