

Emma Latters Fined Again

Emma Latters Spencer, elderly Negro woman, stole the show at city court again Monday, as she was tried before Judge E. A. Harrill for possession of one gallon non-tax-paid whiskey for alleged purposes of sale.

In the Spencer case, Officer P. A. Hawkins testified that Emma told him the liquor had been slipped there. The liquor was found nine feet from the back of the Spencer house.

John Mahoney, of Shelby, was defense attorney.

She was found guilty and sentenced to 90 days in jail suspended on payment of a fine of $100 and costs.

Following are portions of the Spencer woman's testimony under questioning by Judge Harrill: Judge Harrill: "Did you know the liquor was there?"

She replied: "Had I known it was there I would have run when the law came."

Judge Harrill: "Did you drink it?"

She replied: "Why sure, after I finished washing and ironing, I was tired, then I drank it."

She testified she didn't know about this liquor but had she found it, it would have been hers. Other judgments of the court included:

Willie Smith, Negro, charged with assault on his wife, was taxed with the costs.

Two defendants paid a fine of $5.00 each and the costs and three paid costs after pleading guilty to charges of public drunkenness.

Mathis Evans, charged with speeding, was taxed with the costs.

A charge of driving without license and improper passing against W. P. Feur was not prosecuted.

Prayer for judgment was continued for 30 days against Carl Sisk on a charge of non-support.

Walter C. Goode was taxed with the costs after being found guilty of non-support.

Play Pearson was fined $100 and taxed with the costs after being found guilty of attempted assault with a deadly weapon.

Willie Davis, Negro of Gaffney, charged with running through a red light, was taxed with the costs.

A case against Thomas D. Price, of Charlotte, charged with running through a red light was dismissed.

Burben Lee Burris, Negro, charged with possession of three-fourths gallon of non-tax-paid whiskey, received a 90-day jail sentence suspended upon payment of a fine of $100 and costs.

James Hughes, Negro found guilty of driving without a license in Recorder's court on June 11, was sentenced to one month

GIRL SCOUT News

Thursday, August 2, the Girl Scouts of the Lutheran church went to Tryon to a Boy Scout camp. We ate supper beside a lake. We saw some snakes. We went to see the Lake and canoes. Then we saw the pageant of Hiawatha.
