Margrave Woman's Club
Enjoys Costume Party

Fun and frolic prevailed when the Margrave Woman's club enjoyed a Hallowe'en costume party at their meeting, Friday, October 26.

During the business session, Mrs. Joe Foster was appointed publicity chairman. Mrs. Floyd Gates, Marshal Gore and Mrs. George Sellers were appointed as the sick committee and Mesdames Gurn Hamrick, Walter Gamble, and A. S. Lynch were appointed as the menu committee.

Apple bobbing and other Hallowe'en merriment made up the social period.

Weiners and marshmallows were toasted over an outdoor bonfire and cold drinks and coffee were served.

Mrs. Buddy Medlin won first prize for the best costume and Mrs. Paul Mauney and Mrs. Walter Woodward won second and third prizes.

Entre Nous Club met With Mrs. Arthur

The home of Mrs. J. H. Arthur was gay with Hallowe'en decorations on Monday afternoon when her guests were members of the Entre-Nous bridge club with Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt and Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Jr., special guests of the hostess.

Playing prizes were presented Mrs. W. W. Tolleson and Mrs. Clyde Kerns for having high and second high respectively; the gifts were attractively wrapped carrying out the Hallowe'en motif.

The tables were appointed with yellow crocheted mats centered with orange candles surrounded with nasturtiums in vivid fall colors. The motif was also carried out in the molded salad, chicken salad sandwiches and other party accessories, individual tarts topped with cream and fashioned as Jack-O-Lanterns were passed.

MYF To Have Debate Sunday Evening

At their Sunday evening meeting, the Sr. MYF will have a debate with Bill Briggs to bring points on the issue: "Resolved: That Beer Should Not Be Advertised on Television", and Don Bumgardner will take up the opposite arguments: "Resolved: We Must Have Beer Advertised in order to Have Good Programs."

Sunday morning leader will be Ivan Weaver, of the Air Force in Texas, who is now home on leave.

The following Sunday evening a special program is planned, for a joint meeting of the Int. and Sr. MYF, when Miss Sally Conner, age 14, of Charlotte, will be guest speaker. Miss Conner recently spent three months in Europe and is in demand as a speaker to youth groups telling of her observations and experiences. She will bring with her souvenirs.

The Senior group held their Hallowe'en weiner roast in the basement of the church Tuesday night, as their hayride was rained out.

All young people are invited to attend the evening service this Sunday at 7:30 p.m. at Central Church, Shelby, where Miss Agnes Mallory, a young worker with Methodist students in Havana Cuba, will tell of her work and show pictures. Evening services at Central Methodist Church here are called off that they might attend.

Senior MYF
To Sponsor Orphan

The Senior MYF will again sponsor Miss Louise Williams, age 16, of the Children's Home in Winston-Salem, for a year. Funds for this project were raised last week when the group put on a spaghetti supper in the churchbasement. Net profit from the supper, reported by Miss Dorothy Goforth, ticket chairman, was $500.00, which is the amount necessary for sponsoring Miss Williams.

The young people worked long and hard to make the supper a success, and their efforts are commendable. Not only did they sell tickets, buy tickets themselves, donate food, but they spent hours at the church both Wednesday and Thursday afternoon in preparation for the supper, under the capable guidance of Mrs. Bun Goforth, adult councilor, who was assisted by other councilors and helpers.

To be commended also are the boys, who donned aprons and washed the dishes, singing together as they worked.

Gleaners Class Celebrates Birthday

The Gleaners class of the First Baptist church celebrated its 18th birthday anniversary with a lovely party in the home of Mrs. Bryon Hord Monday night.

The former teachers of the class were invited. Two were present, Mrs. W. M. Morehead and Mrs. Earl Ledford.

Mrs. Harold Crawford a charter member gave the history of the class, stating when organized there were 3 members, the largest enrollment for any year was 63.

Mrs. J. B. Falls conducted the devotional, Mrs. Bryon Hord led in prayer. Mrs. Everett Cloninger presided during the business.

A social hour was enjoyed at the conclusion of the program with delightful games led by Mrs. Clyde Jolly. A salad course was served, highlighted by cutting and serving the birthday cake. There were 13 members and three visitors present for the happy occasion.

Legion Auxiliary Have Membership Drive

During the month of October, the members of the American Legion Auxiliary have been engaged in a membership drive. Their report mailed to the North Carolina Department October 31 showed forty-six paid members and one of their members, Mrs. John N. Gamble, a "Go-Getter". Also, by October 31st, the local unit was responsible for getting gifts to the Veterans Gift Shops at Swannanoa, N. C. and Fayetteville, N. C., the gifts numbering the total or more of their membership. These gifts are for the hospitalized veterans so they may select what they would like to send to their loved ones at Christmas time. After their selection, the gifts are wrapped in attractive Christmas packages and mailed, sometime before Christmas. This is just one of the many services rendered by the American Legion Auxiliary Units throughout the United States, done free of charge and with willing and cooperative spirits.

Are you a member of your local American Legion Auxiliary Unit? The November meeting will be with Mrs. George Allen, East King Street, and the program for the month of November places emphasis on four fundamental phases of community life—Religion, Education, Economics, and Government, carrying out the nation-wide observance of Americanism Appreciation Month Americanism A p p r e c i a t i o n month.

Mrs. Ben H. Goforth, Sr., left Thursday for Sylva from where she and Mrs. Ben H. Goforth, Jr. will leave Friday for Chicago, where Lieutenant Ben H. Goforth, Jr. is stationed. From Chicago, Mrs. Ben H. Goforth, Sr. will visit Cleveland and Akron, Ohio before returning home.
