Hambright Rites Held Wednesday

Funeral rites for Robert E. (Ed) Hambright, 71, prominent Grover citizen, were held Wednesday afternoon at Antioch Baptist church, with Masonic burial rites following at the Grover cemetery.

Mr. Hambright succumbed at 5:15 Monday afternoon at Charlotte Memorial hospital following a 10-day illness. He had suffered from a heart condition for the past four years.

A native of the Antioch community near Grover, Mr. Hambright had been a Grover merchant for more than 50 years. He was also a former rural mail carrier. He was the son of the late Anderson and Sarah Dickson Hambright and a direct descendant of Col. William Frederick Hambright, a commander at the Battle of Kings Mountain in the Revolutionary War. He was a member of the Grover Baptist church.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Flora Fain Hambright, to whom he was married on February 23, 1921, two sons, R. E. Hambright, Jr., of Grover, and Ralph Fain Hambright, with the U. S. Air Force at San Antonio, Texas, two daughters, Mrs. Grover Nunery, of Charlotte, and Mrs. Grover Meharg, of Norfolk, Va., two brothers, Ross Hambright and T. A. Hambright, both of Grover, and four sisters, Mrs. Flora Sims, Sharon, S. C., Miss Ance Hambright, of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Bessie Ferguson, York, S. C., and Mrs. Alice Plaxico, of Chester, S. C.

Three grandchildren also survive.

The funeral service was conducted by Dr. S. M. Hughes, assisted by Dr. Smoot Baker, Rev. T. W. Allran and Rev. Park Moore.

phases of the Girl Scout program to public attention. They include: homemaking, arts and crafts, citizenship, health and safety, international friendship, and outdoor life.

Girl Scout Week honors the memory of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scout movement. The observance was first held in 1927 and has continued annually since.
