

Miss Oates Bride Of J. K. Lewis, Jr.

A wedding of widespread social interest was solemnized on Saturday evening at the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church in Chester, S. C., when Miss Frances McElwee Oates of Chester exchanged marriage vows with Kelly Lewis, Jr., of Gastonia.

The Rev. Arthur M. Rogers read the ritual. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white duchess satin designed with sweetheart neckline, snug bodice, and long fitted sleeves. Loose pleats which accented the full skirt widened at the back to form a wide aisle-wide train, and the train-length veil of imported illusion was worn with a cap of seed pearls.

Mrs. Dan Herlong of Johnson, S. C., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Jean Alice Lewis, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Harry Jenkins, Jr., of this city; Miss Ola Matlock of Chester, and Miss Bess MacAulay, of Georgetown, S. C.

Their gowns were graceful models in fuchsia net over taffeta, and they carried spray orchids in ring-shaped bouquets.

J. R. Bradshaw of Gastonia was best man, and ushers were Jesse H. Oates, Jr., Robert Haygood, Harry Jenkins, Jr., Lawrence Davis, and William C. Jumper of this city, and J. W. Reid, Jr., of Lowell.

Following the ceremony a handsomely appointed reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Jennie M. Oates, in Chester.

Mrs. Lewis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Havries Oates. She is a graduate of Winthrop College, Rock Hill, S. C., and has been a member of the faculty of Arlington School here for the past two years.

Mr. Lewis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly Lewis. He was graduated from the local high school and Wake Forest College; played major league baseball with the Washington Senators, and served with the U. S. Air Force in World War II, seeing service in India. He now operates Lewis Motors of Gastonia.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will be at home on Poston Circle.

Mr. Lewis was coach of Kings Mountain's American Legion baseball team in 1950.
