

Methodist Group Will Have Supper

The Senior MYF is to have a covered dish supper on Sunday evening in the church basement, beginning at 5:30 o'clock. A period of recreation, led by Bill Brigg; and singing, accompanied by Barbara Gault, will precede a special program at 6:30 o'clock, at which time Miss Kitty Sutton, Adult Advisor on Worship, begins a study course, "The Christian Home", which is to continue for four Sunday evening meetings.

The MYF plans to have a 'posom hunt Thursday evening, Feb. 21, with Reginald Murray, Pres., in charge of working out plans.

Mrs. G. F. Lattimore Is Hostess To Circle

Mrs. G. F. Lattimore was hostess to Circle No. 6 of Central Methodist church on Monday night at her home. The home was attractive with arrangements of spring flowers and potted plants. Fifteen were present, including three visitors.

Devotionals were given by Mrs. Wilbur Smith and Miss Margaret Cornwell presented a study, which was inspiring to all. During the business session, Miss Winifred Fulton, leader, announced the W. S. C. S. cake sale to be held Saturday, and the Spiritual Life Meeting to be on Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Ocie Looney, who entertained the group with a Bingo contest. Prizes were won by Mrs. Ben Ballard, Mrs. Jack Ledford, Miss Lela Clark, Miss Dorothy Hayes, and Miss Winifred Fulton. Other awards went to Miss Grace Davis and Mrs. G. F. Lattimore (for living farthest out of town) and (having the oldest child) respectively, also Mrs. Jack Ledford, for having the tallest husband. Everyone received a gift from Mrs. Looney, who then conducted a sale of Stanley products, which netted a nice profit for the circle.

Delicious fruit punch and plain cake topped with ice cream, chocolate syrup, and nuts, were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Baxter Payseur, and Mrs. Jack Ledford.

A delightful period of fellowship concluded the meeting.

Double Deck Club Met With Mrs. J. N. Gamble

Mrs. J. N. Gamble delightfully entertained members of the Double Deck bridge club and several other friends at her home Tuesday night.

Four tables were appointed for refreshments, each table had a blue container with red japonica. The George Washington idea was carried out in the decorations and party accessories. When all had gathered for the party, the hostess served a chicken, vegetable salad, olives and coffee. Cherry tarts topped with whipped cream were passed. During the progressions bowls of pop corn were placed on each table.

Striking arrangements of japonica, amaryllis and jonquils were used at vantage points in the rooms.

At the close of the evening games, playing prizes were given Mrs. J. K. Willis and Mrs. W. M. Moorehead for winning club high and second high.

Visitor's high and second high were awarded, Mrs. M. H. Biser and Mrs. L. A. Hoke. Others playing other than members were Mesdames H. R. Hunnicutt, J. H. Arthur, G. W. King, W. W. South, W. K. Crook and I. G. Patterson.

Mrs. Charles Moss, Jr. Hostess To Circle

The Elizabeth Runyan Circle of the First Baptist church met Monday night with Mrs. Charles Moss, Jr.

The devotional was conducted by Mrs. Moss. Miss Betty Hayes presented a program on, "Prayer".

Two visitors were present, Mrs. Eugene Wright and Mrs. Earl Ledford.

During the social hour a salad course, nuts and valentine candies was served.

Mrs. H. R. Neisler Bridge Hostess

With only members present, Mrs. Hunter Neisler graciously entertained the Tuesday afternoon bridge club at her home this week.

The Valentine idea was carried out in the decorated cookies and salad served.

Bright arrangements of spring flowers enhanced the lovely setting for the club meeting.

Mrs. Joe Neisler was high score winner for the afternoon.

Duplicate Bridge Club Meets With Mrs. Houser

A delightful meeting of the Duplicate Bridge club was held Monday afternoon at the Country Club with Mrs. George Houser as hostess.

A salad course was served during the progressions, when scores were compared it was revealed Mrs. Tolly Shuford held high score with Mrs. Jacob Cooper runner up for second high.

Attractive bowls of spring flowers were used in decorations.

To increase America's oil supply by a million barrels a day would require 1,848,000 tons of steel and $965,000,000, or almost a thousand dollars and two tons of steel per barrel of oil.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

Feb. 6, Troop No. 2, B. S. of A. held its third regular meeting, Wednesday night at the scout meeting time. The meeting was started off with the Scout Oath lead by Keith Layton. Then the Scout Laws were read by Richard Bollinger. After that we took up dues and each boy reported to the patrol leaders and gave his best deed of the past week to the Scoutmaster. There were nineteen present including the Scoutmaster and asst. Scoutmaster. Then our visitors were recognized, they were W. K. Mauney and Rev. Gerberding. We then went to patrol meeting. During patrol meeting each boy was given a chance to pass off his Tenderfoot Badge for the coming Court of Honor. After the meeting we reorganized. Then the minutes of the last meeting were read. The meeting was adjourned with the Scout Benediction.
