Mrs. J. A. Neisler Is Bridge Club Hostess

The Tuesday afternoon bridge club was entertained this week by Mrs. Joe A. Neisler at her attractive suburban home with extra guests making up a third table.

Lovely arrangements of snapdragons from Mrs. Neisler's greenhouse with an assortment of other cut flowers were used to enhance the spacious home.

When scores were counted at the end of play, Mrs. George Latimore was awarded high score prize for the club members. Mrs. C. D. Blanton was winner for the non-members.

A complete salad course was served with coffee to the members playing and the following guests, Mrs. C. D. Blanton, Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt, Mrs. Faison Barnes and Mrs. Jim Smith.

Mrs. Tate Fetes

Study Club Meets

With Mrs. O. W. Myers

The February meeting of the Study Club was held Tuesday night with Mrs. O. W. Myers.

An assortment of colorful spring flowers profusely decorated the lovely home for the occasion. A social half hour was enjoyed before the meeting. The hostess was assisted in serving a congealed salad course, and other accessories and coffee. Passing ginger bread topped with whipped cream and grated nuts. The gingerbread was made from a recipe used by Mary Ball Washington, mother of George Washington.

Mrs. W. T. Weir gave a most interesting and informative program on flat silver, telling of the origin of the silver guld and how different patterns are made, how to select and care for silver. Delicately jeweled Snop cooperated by lending several patterns for display. They also sent a small silver spoon pin for each lady, matching her silver pattern. The program was closed with a record, Rondo, A Melody in Silver.

Mrs. B. D. Goforth and guest Miss Evelyn Morrow of St. Paul, Minn., were special guests.

Mrs. Bud Goforth Honored With Miscellaneous Shower

A miscellaneous shower was given by Misses Bernice Harrison and Peggy Cloninger at the home of the former on Dilling street Tuesday night honoring Mrs. Bud Goforth, the former Miss Ruth Dettmar a bride of late summer who announced her marriage several weeks ago.

Beautiful arrangements of jonquils were used in the party rooms.

Three progressions of bridal dice were played during the evening with Mrs. Gene Steffy as high scorer and Miss Cloninger was low score winner.

A party plate, consisting of a fruit salad, sandwiches, and cheese balls, was served with coffee. Nuts were also served during the progressions.

The honoree received many nice and useful gifts from those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Timms Bridge Club Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Timms delightfully entertained members of the King of Hearts at their home Tuesday night.

Winter decorations were used in the home.

Four progressions of bridge were played with Mrs. Fred McDaniel and Dr. Nathan Reed winning the high score prizes.

A dessert course was served at the conclusion of the games.

EL-Bethel-Bethware News

(Mrs. Leonard Gamble)

Rev. and Mrs. W. L. McSwain spent this past Saturday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Mills McSwain, near Earl. There were gathered together members of this family to celebrate the first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. McSwain who have lived in that section all their married life.

Rev. W. L. McSwain is recuperating from a nasal operation which he underwent this past week. He was able to attend his services last Sunday at David and Allen Memorial Baptist churches, but was assisted in the services at David by the Rev. J. J. Hicks who brought the message at 11 o'clock, and at Allen Memorial he occupied the pulpit leading the congregation in an old fashioned prayer meeting.

Family Night was observed in the David Baptist church on Wednesday evening, Feb. 20. This is the regular calendar of activities when entire families come together for a graded study, worship and planning. This service takes the place of the regular prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings after each first and third Sunday.

The Rev. W. L. McSwain has been asked to assist in the dedication of a new church building, James Cross Roads Baptist church, of the South Yadkin Association in Iredell county. He served for a number of years as pastor of this church when he served in that association for about 1 1/2 years. He is expecting to comply with this request.

Wade Ryan McSwain is now on tour with the choir of the Music School of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. The group is on a two weeks tour down through Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia, etc.

William Andrew McSwain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther R. McSwain, now a senior at Lenoir-Rhyne is making arrangements to attend the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville this fall.

The J. E. Anthony's, Jr. Dinner Bridge Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Anthony, Jr., were hosts at dinner bridge Friday night, their guests being members of the Couples Club and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fulton and Mrs. Margaret Miller.

Bridge was played in progressions after the delicious meal. Prizes were presented Mrs. Dace Peeler and Bobby Suber for holding high score for ladies and gentlemen.

A variety of spring flowers were used around the home to create a gala atmosphere for the party.

New Corporation Buys Hardware

Gamble Hardware, Inc., a new corporation to be managed by Robert Gamble, former partner in Logan Supply Company, has purchased Bridges Hardware in Bessemer City from Elmo Bridges.

Announcement of the purchase was made this week by Mr. Gamble, who said the transaction was completed on Saturday. Stockholders of Gamble Hardware, Inc., include Mr. Gamble, R. L. Lewis and Carl C. Carpenter.

There are 281,632 miles of pipe line in the U. S. carrying crude oil, natural gas and petroleum products,—more than the mileage of all Class I railways in the country.
