SPENDING OR SAVING— WHICH COMES FIRST?

THAT QUESTION IS REMINISCENT OF THE OLD SAW ABOUT THE CHICKEN AND THE EGG— SO INTERDEPENDENT HAVE SPENDING AND SAVING BECOME IN OUR MODERN COMPLEX SOCIETY.

THE MACHINES WHICH MAKE POSSIBLE THE VAST ARRAY OF GOODS ON WHICH PEOPLE SPEND THEIR MONEY ARE FINANCED BY THE PEOPLE'S SAVINGS. IN THE PRODUCTION OF ALMOST EVERYTHING YOU USE, FOR EXAMPLE— WHETHER IT'S CLOTHING OR CARS, TOASTERS OR TRACTORS, PHONES OR PLANES— THE INVESTMENT OF LIFE INSURANCE FUNDS HAS A PART.

Legion To Discuss Junior Baseball

A special meeting of Otis D. Green Post 155 has been called for Friday at 7:30 p. m. at the Legion hall to discuss junior baseball.

The organization is discussing means to continue the program, offered here for the past seven years.

A $2,000 loss on the program last year has seriously endangered the organization's sponsorship of the program here this summer.

The Kings Mountain entry has finished in third place, one-half game out of the second round, in area four state play for the past two seasons.

The post has gone on record as favoring continuance of the program provided funds to cover the operating budget can be raised before the season gets underway.

City Firemen Answer Five Calls

City firemen answered three fire alarms during the past week. Saturday night firemen put out a cloth fire at Margrace Mill. Little damage was reported.

On Monday firemen put out a grass fire on Cleveland avenue. On Tuesday evening firemen extinguished a fire at Howard Moore's home on Linwood road. The oil stove in the Moore home blazed up setting the room on fire. Slight damage was done, according to report of City Fireman Ted Gamble.

In addition, P. D. Fulton, full-time fireman, answered a call Monday at 6 p. m. and extinguished a motor-bike blaze behind Kings Mountain Drug Co., and full-time fireman, Ted Gamble put out a grass fire on Church street Tuesday afternoon.

Robert Morgan Speaks To IC's

"We citizens of today must accept the responsibility of personal brotherhood among ourselves in order to overcome the feeling of apathy that exists," Robert F. Morgan, of Shelby, told members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the organization's regular semi-monthly meeting held Tuesday night at the Masonic dining hall.

"Man is no island—all are interdependent upon one another. We must not be selfish in receiving the ideas of others. Honesty is the backbone of brotherhood and of business. There are only two kinds of people, the one dead, the other living," Mr. Morgan continued.

"There are four things we could all think of and do to strive towards the true brotherhood of man—work, save, vote and pray," he added.

Mr. Morgan, an active Shelby Jaycee, and leading young businessman, is a candidate for state senator from the 27th district, although that fact was not brought out in the introduction. He was introduced by Jack White, program chairman.

Joel Ritchie, of Albemarle, third district, vice-president of the state organization, was also present for an official visitation and spoke briefly to the club.

Bert Chandler informed the club about Little League baseball and the group voted to sponsor a team in a proposed league.

Other actions included the passing of a resolution urging the next General Assembly to institute driving courses in all state high schools, authorization for the treasurer to pay the club's part of the city schools Bible teacher's salary and the
