BOY SCOUT NEWS
Troop Number Two, Boy Scouts of America, held its fifth regular meeting Wednesday night at Scout meeting time. The meeting was started with the Scout Oath and Scout Laws led by the Scoutmaster. This week the Scoutmaster taught the boys a new game called the "Sleeping Indian." There were 17 boys present and we had one visitor, Mr. Ormand. We then went to Patrol meeting.
After Patrol meeting we re-assembled and our dues were taken up and each boy reported his good deed of the week.
Then our two Patrols held a contest to see which Patrol knew the 8 points of the Compass best. Then the minutes of the last meeting were read, and we adjourned with the Scout Benediction.

Miss Addie Mae Page of Lincolnton and Fort Yukon, Alaska, and Allen E. Elmoa, of Switzerland, Florida were married Saturday afternoon at five o'clock in historic St. Luke's Episcopal church with the rector Rev. Richard J. Lee officiating. Only members of the two families witnessed the taking of the vows.
Mrs. Elmoa is a sister of Harry, Jim and Bill Page of this city. After completing her course at Emory University she was on the staff of Memorial hospital in Charlotte and the Hudson Stuck Memorial hospital in Fort Yukon, Alaska.
Mr. Elmoa is an electronic technician with the U. S. weather bureau. He was recently transferred to Atlanta from Ft. Worth, Texas where he was stationed for five years.
The couple will make their home at 1843 Valley Drive, Atlanta.
Following the ceremony at the church Mr. and Mrs. Rhynne Little of Lincolnton and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page were hosts at an informal reception at the Little home. Spring flowers were used in the home and Mrs. Miller and Polly and Jane Page, assisted with the hospitalities.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Page, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Page attended the ceremony from Kings Mountain.
The F. R. McDaniel's Jr. Bridge Club Hosts
The members of the King of Hearts Bridge club met Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDaniel, Jr.
After four progressions of bridge, tallies were compared and high score prizes for the evening were awarded Mr. and Mrs. Gene Timms. Mrs. Timms also received the high score prize for the month.
Toasted sandwiches and hot chocolate were served when cards were laid aside.
Shirley Yarbro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Yarbro, is confined to her home on Shelby road with pneumonia.
