Investiture Service Held By Brownies

Brownie Troop No. 1 of Central Methodist church held their regular meeting Monday afternoon at their room in the church.

New officers are selected every three months, in January the following were elected president, Phyllis Bumgardner, vice pres.; Judy Early, sec.; Doris Dixon and treasurer, Mrs. Holland Dixon.

Topic for study in January was "How to set a Table", the correct way to place crystal, china and silver, the correct use of candles and center flower arrangements, where to seat the host and hostess and guests.

Miss Jane Brockman of Gastonia was present for one meeting teaching the Brownies how to prepare colors.

Plans were made for an Investiture Service to be held for three new Brownies and assistant leader, Mrs. Jake Early. The World Pin ceremony was read by Mrs. Jake Early and the mothers of the new Brownies were given the honor of pinning these pins on their daughters.

Light refreshments were served after the ceremony.

Another one of the activities was learning how to be prepared, how to send an SOS by flag, flash light, hand shake and whistle.

Plans are being made to attend Camp Rotary during the summer months. Also to sell the Girl Scout cookies to help support Camp Rotary.
