Friendship Class Met In Wallace Home

The Friendship Class of Grace Methodist church met Tuesday night, March 11 in the home of Mrs. Allen Wallace. "Beautiful Garden of Prayer" was used as the opening song, this was followed with a prayer by Mrs. Frank Ballard.

Song, "Tell it to Jesus" the responsive Bible reading was on Brotherhood in God.

Mrs. Clark Williams gave the Bible lesson from the 12 chapter of Isaiah.

The president conducted a quiz program on questions from the Bible with Mrs. Clark Williams and Mrs. T. J. Ellison being winners.

After a short business session the meeting was closed by prayer, the Lord's Prayer.

The hostess was assisted in serving chicken salad, fruit salad, sandwiches toast crackers, angel food and fruit cake, with cokes.

Double Deck Club Met With Mrs. Moorehead

With only members present Tuesday night, March 11, Mrs. W. M. Moorehead delightfully entertained the Double Deck Bridge club at her home in Crescent Hills.

A variety of spring flowers in harmonizing arrangements were used as room decorations. Tables were laid and when all had assembled for the party the hostess served a salad course with pleasing accessories.

Tables were rearranged for bridge and several progressions ensued with Mrs. Ben H. Goforth carrying off high honors and Mrs. J. K. Willis second high.

Miss Lina Baker, student at Mars Hill college is spending the spring holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Baker. Tuesday Miss Baker spent the day with her roommate, Miss Betty Morgan in Marion.

Spratt-Irvin Vows Spoken In Arlington

In a ceremony marked with simplicity and reverent beauty, Miss Ruby Katherine Spratt became the bride of Cpl. Willard Hershel Irvin, March 13, at 4 o'clock in the Fort Myers Chapel at Arlington, Va. Lt. Col. Robert M. Homiston, of the U. S. Army officiated using the double ring ceremony. Only members of the immediate families attended.

The chapel was beautiful with a central arrangement of Cathedral tapers and mixed pastel flowers.

A program of wedding music was rendered by the organist of the chapel.

The bride wore an ankle length gown of bridal satin, with a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace which featured a Peter Pan collar, long sleeves ending in lily points at the hands. The full satin skirt had panels of matching Chantilly lace. Her cap was of matching lace and satin with a finger tip veil of nylon net. Her bouquet was a nosegay of pastel sweet peas centered with roses.

Miss Beatrice Spratt of Kings Mountain, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Her gown was of aqua taffeta, fitted bodice, and jacket with a full overskirt of nylon net. She wore a corsage of red roses.

William M. Lancaster of Arlington, Va., served as best man. Following the wedding, Mrs. Fred Ernst, sister of the groom entertained the bridal party and members of the families with a cake cutting.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Spratt of Kings Mountain. She is a graduate of Mooreboro high school and at the time of her marriage was employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D. C.

The bridegroom is the son of Hershel Irvin and the late Mrs. Irvin of Selkirk, N. Y. He attended Selkirk high school.

During World War II, he served with the U. S. Army in the Philippine Islands and Japan. He recently returned from 17 months service in Korea.

After a honeymoon in Liberty and New York City the couple will be at home at 1421 Monroe St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Ertle Powers and Mrs. Bruce McDaniel were Friday guests of Mrs. Lewis Brewer of Charlotte.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN ODUS PATTERSON

Miss Thornburg Bride Of J. O. Patterson
