"Frills And Fashions" Event Well Attended

The Fashion Show sponsored by the Social committee from the Country Club and given in the club house Tuesday night was well attended, not only by the people of Kings Mountain but from Atlanta, Charlotte, Gastonia, Bessemer City, Cherryville, York, Shelby and other surrounding towns.

Mrs. Carl Biggers (Miss Charlotte) commented, in her charming way captivated the audience, and from the first, the showing of dresses and accessories by models from our own city was heartily received. Mrs. Biggers was assisted by Miss Ann Parrish of Charlotte.

The people in Kings Mountain are indebted to Mary Rice of Hamlet and Camden for bringing this Fashion Show and from comments everyone is most appreciative and thoroughly enjoyed watching the models move through their paces showing flaring hamples, waistlines on the move both up and down, necklines with new and important lines, you saw a whole kaleidoscope of colors—some brilliant, some misty and subdued, you saw pure silks from the Orient, Strange test-tube fabrics, suits in English flannel, silk shantung, checks, doe flannel, calico dress prints, Plantation Prints, Coats of blue fleece, Heather tweed, dresses of crepe, Rose printed, starched net with star dust, nylon organdy and a whole world of wonderful cottons.

Hats were large, small, flowered, ribbon and veil trimmed, flowers, gloves, kerchiefs and jewelry shown with the different costumes made you realize more than ever, the important part they play with the well dressed lady.

Those modeling were, Mrs. Henry Neisler, Mrs. Charles Neisler, Mrs. David Neill, Mrs. Marshall Heavner, Mrs. L. E. Abbott, Mrs. Drace Peeler, Mrs. Arnold Kiser, Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr., Mrs. Faison Barnes, Mrs. Carl Mayes, Miss Ann Mayes, Mrs. P. D. Herndon, Mrs. Martin Harmon,

MRS. WILLIAM BRUNSON HARMON

Lovely Church Rites Unite Miss Lovelace, Mr. Harmon Sunday

Miss Lillian Delores Lovelace and William Brunson Harmon, both of Kings Mountain, pledged marriage vows Sunday afternoon, at 4 o'clock in David's Baptist church in a ceremony marked by reverence and dignity. The Rev. C. C. Crowe, pastor of the bride at Oak Grove church, read the double ring ritual for the couple and was assisted by the Rev. W. L. McSwain, pastor of David's church.

Two tall baskets of white gladioli and three candelabra holding white tapers were arranged on the altar in front of a background of pine boughs and the altar rail was twined with ivy.

Mrs. Juanita Warren was pianist for the program of wedding music and Miss Pauline Hayes was vocal soloist.

The bride, who came to the altar on the arm of her father, made a pretty picture in her wedding gown, which was a Maurer original of Chantilly lace over slipper satin, fashioned with fitted bodice and off-shoulder neckline filled in with sheer yoke and outlined with applied lace medallions. The long pointed sleeves were finished with narrow lace frills over the hands and the full skirt was ballerina length. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of Chantilly lace embroidered with seed pearls; she wore a single strand of pearls given to her by the bridegroom; and her bouquet was a white orchid posed on a white Bible.

Miss Martha Jo Randall attended the bride as maid of honor and Carolyn Lovelace, sister of the bride, and Joyce Allen, cousin of the bridegroom were junior bridesmaids.

The bridal attendants wore dresses of pastel organdy with the honor maid in mint green and the junior bridesmaids in yellow; with her green gown, the honor maid carried a nosegay of yellow flowers and the junior attendants carried nosegays of white flowers nestled in tufts of yellow mallow.

The girls' dresses were made alike with fitted bodices, off-shoulder necklines and full, ballerina-length skirts, and each of them wore a bandeau headdress to match her gown.

Flay Harmon of Shelby, uncle of the bridegroom, was his best man and Wilbur Lovelace of Gastonia, cousin of the bride, and Everett Patterson of Kings Mountain were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with white and navy accessories and a corsage of red roses and the bridegroom's mother wore a grey suit with pink and black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The bride, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lovelace of Kings Mountain, is a graduate of Bethware high school and has been employed by the Dixie Home store in Gastonia for the past year.

The bridegroom is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harmon of Kings Mountain, who formerly resided in Shelby, is a graduate of Shelby high school, and is now engaged in poultry farming near Kings Mountain.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon left for a wedding trip through the mountains of western North Carolina and Tennessee and when they return will be at home with the bridegroom's parents.

Mrs. Sam Hamrick Hostess To Auxiliary

The American Legion Auxiliary met last Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Sam Hamrick with Mrs. C. L. Jolly as co-hostess.

Spring flowers were used in the decorations. Mrs. Hal Ward, president, called the meeting to order with the salute to the flag.

During the business session, a rummage sale was planned for Saturday, April 12.

The hostesses served Japanese fruit cake with Russian tea during the social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Herndon and small son spent the weekend with their parents.

Mrs. R. H. Webb Entertains Club

Mrs. R. H. Webb used flowering quince, jonquils, narcissus and hyacinth in pleasing arrangements Tuesday afternoon when she entertained the Tuesday Afternoon bridge club and three additional guests, Mrs. Harry Page, Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt and Mrs. Carl Mauney.

After several progressions fresh avocado salad with accompanying party dainties was served.

When tallies were compared high score prize for visitor's went to Mrs. Harry Page, Mrs. H. S. Blackmer carried off club high.

Mrs. W. L. Ramsey and Mrs. G. F. Lattimore were club winners for the series.

Officers Elected By Junior G. A.'s

The Junior Girls Auxiliary of the First Baptist church held their second meeting in March on Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mickie White. The group sang all four stanzas of "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations". The following officers were elected for the next six months president; Beth Roberts, vice-president; Pat Alexander, secretary; Phyllis Dean, treasurer; Mickie White, program committee; Martha Matthews, stewardship; Phyllis Henderson, social committee; Gail Hampton, community missions; Becky Thornburg, mission study; Brenda Thornburg, reporter; Ruth Ellen McCurdy.

After the meeting cookies were served.

Miss Sipes Bride Of Cpl. R. G. Wilson

Miss Mary Sue Sipes and Cpl. Robert G. Wilson both of Kings Mountain, were married Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in a simple but beautiful wedding held in the First Baptist church. Rev. T. L. Cashwell, Jr., pastor of the bride, officiated, using the impressive double-ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was furnished by Miss Barbara Gault, organist and B. S. Peeler, Jr., soloist. Miss Gault played, "Clair de Lune" by Debussy, "Always" and "To A Wild Rose" by McDowell as the pledges were made. Mr. Peeler sang, "Because" by d'Hawdelot and "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte and was sung as the benediction. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Ushers were Jack Patterson and Don Glass.

The bride was very striking in a Royal blue suit with which she used white accessories and a white orchid shoulder corsage.

Mrs. Wilson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grier Sipes, the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wilson, and recently returned from over a year spent in Korea.

After a honeymoon spent in touring Florida, Cpl. Wilson reports to Fort Jackson.
