Dr. Brooks Joins In Alcohol Study

RALEIGH—Dr. Lee M. Brooks, professor of sociology at the University of North Carolina, will join the staff of North Carolina's Summer Studies on Facts About Alcohol, co-sponsored by the N. C. Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program and the UNC Extension Division at Chapel Hill June 9-13.

A specialist in the sociological fields of criminology, family, community, and social control, Dr. Brooks will lecture on the Social Science Approach to Social Problems. His travels as a visiting professor and research scientist have carried him over the nation, into Canada, to Hawaii, and the British Isles.

Since coming to the University of North Carolina in 1935, Dr. Brooks has authored many articles in scholarly journals over the state and nation and has compiled workbooks and manuals on various sociological subjects.

Dr. Brooks has served as president of the Southern Sociological Society, secretary to the University's Division of Social Sciences, members of the University's Administrative committee on Personnel Curriculum, of the N. C. Mental Hygiene Society Executive them for the beautiful flowers, the lovely program, and other courtesies bestowed upon her. She also expressed her appreciation to the installing officers, and to Rev. Cashwell, for the beautiful and impressive service. She also welcomed the visitors.

J. C. Bridges, newly installed worthy patron, expressed his appreciation for the honor conferred, pledging his support to the chapter, and asking the cooperation of all members.

At the close of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed and delicious refreshments served.
