

Plans Revealed For Sub-Debutante Ball

Plans for the Shelby Junior Charity League's seventh annual sub-debutante ball are revealed by Mrs. Carl Ray Webb, chairman, who announces that the event which will present approximately fifty young girls to Western North Carolina Society will be held on the evening of June 7, in the Shelby Armory Auditorium. The sub-debs and their escorts will be feted at a supper dance on Friday, June 6.

One of the debutantes will be chosen to reign as queen, and two others will be chosen to be her attendants. The reigning debs will be selected on the basis of beauty and personality from photographs to be submitted.

The sub-debutante ball is sponsored each year by the Junior Charity League to raise funds for its county-wide charity program, which runs into hundreds of dollars yearly. Invitations to the ball have been mailed to a select group of young women in Shelby, Bolling Springs, Grover, Lattimore, Waco, Marion, Forest City, Newton, Gastonia, Kings Mountain, Cherryville, Lincolnton, Conover, Rutherfordton, Spindale, Hickory, N. C., and Rock Hill, S. C., Honea Path, S. C., Patterson, New Jersey, and Ridgeway, New Jersey.

Committees for the ball include

D. A. R. Meeting Held With Mrs. M. L. Harmon

Mrs. M. L. Harmon entertained the Colonel Frederick Hambright Chapter of the D. A. R. at her home on Wednesday afternoon, April 2. The home was attractive with arrangements of spring flowers. Nine members and three visitors were present.

The regent, Mrs. T. M. Shuford, presided and opened the meeting with the regular D. A. R. ritual. Mrs. W. T. Weir presented a most enjoyable program on "American Music", which had been arranged by Mrs. J. S. Norman. Mrs. Weir gave some highlights in the development of American music. To illustrate the several periods, Mr. Howard Goble, of the Kings Mountain school faculty, delighted the chapter with vocal solos of the best-loved old favorites. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. E. Herndon.

During the business session, the annual election of officers was held. The following were elected to serve for next year: regent, Mrs. J. E. Herndon; first vice-regent, Mrs. C. D. Blanton; second vice-regent, Mrs. J. S. Norman; recording secretary, Mrs. T. M. Shuford; assistant secretary, Mrs. Arthur Hay; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. W. Griffin; treasurer, Mrs. Joe Thompson; registrar, Mrs. W. T. Weir; chaplain, Mrs. E. L. Campbell; assistant chaplain, Mrs. J. R. Davis; historian, Mrs. Carl Howard; librarian, Mrs. H. T. Fulton.

The chapter voted to sponsor a musical program of Negro singing entitled "King Cotton", to be presented at the high school auditorium on Tuesday, April 29, provided necessary arrangements could be made. The group also decided to sell American flags to merchants to be displayed on patriotic holidays.

At the conclusion of the business, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Martin Harmon, Jr., served a tempting salad plate with coffee and passed a sweet course. The guests enjoying Mrs. Harmon's hospitality were Mrs. John Plonk, Miss Mae Plonk, and Mrs. C. B. Markham of Durham.
