Large Crowd Attend Hobo Party

One of the highlights of the Easter season for the younger children was the Hobo Party Monday afternoon at the Country Club.

The large dining room where the activities were in progress was gaily decorated in Easter colors. A canopy of crepe papers made a colorful topping for the party.

Hoboes were there in discarded Paris hats and patched dungrees, colorful dresses reminding you of gypsies, shoes of different colors and styles, hem lines of any length, patched tucks and well worn beavers, suits to large or to tight, and none descripts to numerous to mention.

Prizes were given Peggy Joyce Reynolds and Simon Peter Fredrick for the "Best Hobo" costume.

Square dancing and the Virginia Reel were led by Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Poston. Mrs. Harry Page and Mrs. Coman Falls in very unique costumes were club hostesses for the affair.

Punch and Easter candies were served throughout the afternoon. Punch was served from a large wooden keg. Later all were seated around the room and supper brought in in paperbags.

Bingo and other games added to the merriment of the afternoon. Comments from the hoboes, "It was a good party, hope we have another soon."
