Murray Home Scene Of Bridge Club Meet

Guests playing bridge on Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. E. A. Murray were members of the Entre-Nous club and two additional guests, Mrs. Jim Smith and Mrs. Jay Patterson.

A variety of spring flowers and tallies with orchids made a colorful setting for the party.

Following the second progression, Mrs. Murray served a salad course and passed a sweet course.

Mrs. J. H. Arthur scored highest for the afternoon with Mrs. W. W. Tolleson runner up for second high.

The F. A. McDaniel's Bridge Party Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. McDaniel were hosts on Tuesday night to members of the King of Hearts bridge club, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedden.

The rooms used for play were prettily decorated with irises and tulips in striking colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hedden were high scorers at the conclusion of the progressions.

A well planned salad plate was served when cards were laid aside.

The bassoon can be used for comic effects in orchestration and hence has been called the humorist of the orchestra.

Kelly Weaver Forensic Victor

Kelly Weaver, a junior at Kings Mountain High School, received a certificate for a gold medal and partial scholarship to Lenoir-Rhyne college, following his victory in the annual Lenoir Rhyne High School Forensic contest at Hickory Friday afternoon.

Dr. Albert Keiser of the college public speaking department and director of the contest, made the presentation.

The youth, making a five-minute talk on "The Secular of the Steel Industry," following one hour of preparation, won first place honors in the extemporaneous speaking division of the contest in competition with five other students from Western North Carolina.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Weaver, 604 West King street, Kings Mountain.

Highway Patrol Gives March Report

Men of the State Highway Patrol traveled almost two million miles in March, investigated 1,850 wrecks, inspected 114,710 vehicles and issued 24,826 tickets.

The Patrol's monthly report of activities listed 8,535 complaints investigated; 12,824 warning tickets issued; 1,932 vehicles weighed; and 187 stolen cars recovered.

The Patrol recovered and returned to their owners cars and property valued at $58,179.00.

They inspected 189,610 driver's licenses and corrected 35,304 bad lights during March.

In carrying out its activities during the month the Patrol used 142,837 gallons of gasoline and 8,283 quarts of oil.

Patrolmen To Have Vacation Booklets

RALEIGH—State Highway Patrolmen will become individual information bureaus within a few days according to a directive from Commissioner L. C. Rosser of the Department of Motor Vehicles.

The 500 men of the Patrol will get two booklets published by the State Travel Bureau describing various points of interest within the Tar Heel State. The booklet will provide a handy source of information for inquiring tourists who are expected to flood the state in record droves this year.

If it were possible for one bee to gather all the material for a pound of honey, it is believed it would have to work every day for eight years.

With Two Wins Grover Finishes

Grover high's baseball nine finished out the 1952 County loop season with a pair of victories, 10-0 over Mooresboro Tuesday afternoon and 6-1 over Bolling Springs on Monday afternoon.

Don White pitched a one-hitter at Mooresboro on the Grover field Tuesday, the lone bingle coming after one out in last inning, the seventh, and with two strikes on the hitter. White struck out 11 and walked but one in tossing the shutout victory.

Tommy Keeter, 1b, had three hits in three trips and, Charlie Mullinax, ss, had 3 for 4 to pace before allowing a hit against Bolling Springs at the losers field on Monday. He gave up two over the seven inning span, the Grover attack.

Bobbie Hord had a big day for Grover, knocking in all runs with two homers, one a grand-slammer, and a single in four trips. Mullinax had 2 for 4.

The victories ran the Grover season record to 6 wins, 4 losses and the No. 4 Township champs must now wait on the rest of the South Zone teams to finish up their schedules before the two places in the annual County loop tournament can be determined. Top two teams in each zone are slated to enter the annual tourney at Shelby.

White, a former Kings Mountain Legion junior player, ran his season record to four wins, two losses and Wells finished up with a hill record of 2-2. Wells was a member of the 1951 Legion juniors and is eligible again this season.

Bethware was rained out last Friday and on Wednesday were playing at Mooresboro.

Students Sing State Festival

A group of 18 students represented Kings Mountain high school Mixed Chorus at the State Festival Chorus held April 24-25 at Woman's College, UNC, in Greensboro.

The group left last Thursday morning for Greensboro where they rehearsed with the other chorus groups from schools over North Carolina for the program on Friday night.

The 650 voice chorus, under the direction of Dr. Lara Hoggard, who is choral director of Fred Warrings chorus, presented a program of music to a capacity crowd of 3,000 people.

Those making the trip from Kings Mountain were: Bobbie Barrett, Evelyn Cline, Suzanne Arrowood, Melba Tindall, Dolores Davidson, Ann Childers, Elien Medlin, Barbara Gault, Pat Smyre, Mary Flemmings, Katy Jones, Shirley Falls, Charles Mauney, Johnny Kiser, Bobby Goforth, Jack Still, Darrell Austin, Jack Moss and W. Howard Coble, director of music in the city schools.

Tigers Meet Blue Sox Here Saturday At 3

The Kings Mountain Tigers, Negro baseball team, is scheduled to face the Stanley Blue Sox at City Stadium on Saturday afternoon at 3 p. m.

The Tigers have won one and lost two to date, both to the Dallas Aces.

In the last game, the Tigers rallied for 8 runs in the 9th frame to defeat the State Line Sluggers.

The first tobacco is believed to have been taken to Europe in 1558.

ELECTED SECRETARY — Miss Betty Ledford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Ledford, has been elected secretary of student council for 1952-53 at Gardner-Webb college. Miss Ledford is a member of the college choir and Christian Volunteer Workers.

Young Golfers Enter Golf Tournaments

Ranny Arnette, Jay Patterson, Jr., and Reginald Murray left Wednesday morning to play in the Second Annual Open Golf tournament at the Greenwood Country Club, Greenwood, S. C.

On Thursday and Friday the young golfers will play in the 15th annual inter-scholastic golf tournament, sponsored by Greenville Kiwanis club, Greenville, S. C., at the Greenville Country Club.

Kings Mountain Kiwanis club is sponsoring the boys at Greenville.

The tournament is for high school students of North and South Carolina.

Junaluska Camp Meeting In June

Two Methodist bishops and a layman will serve as evangelists at the second annual Candle Camp Meeting, June 29-July 9, at Lake Junaluska, N. C., the Methodist Church's southeastern summer assembly grounds.

Bishop Arthur J. Moore, Atlanta, and Roy H. Short, Jacksonville, Fla., will team with Dr. Harry Denman, layman of Nashville, Tenn., who is executive secretary of the Methodist General Board of Evangelism.

The day and night services of the "old-time revival," which drew record crowds last year to Lake Junaluska, will also feature a daily Bible study hour led by Dr. Charles M. Laymon, pastor of Indiana Methodist church, Columbus, Ohio, and Dr. Howard P. Powell, pastor of Edenton Street Methodist church, Raleigh, N. C. Dr. Laymon was formerly dean of Scarritt College in Nashville.

Song leader for the camp meeting program will be John Tremaine, minister of music at St. Luke Methodist church, Columbus, Ga.

Thorburn Seeking Furniture For Hall

Bruce Thorburn, of Phenix Plant, Burlington Mill, is looking for furniture to furnish the recreation hall at the mill.

Mr. Thorburn stated that he would appreciate hearing from any citizen who might have a piece to donate and he urged them to get in touch with him at Phone No. 1.

The recreation hall is located over the Phenix office.

BACK TO GRID — Art Weiner, Kings Mountain high school coach and former football all-American at UNC, resigned this week, effective at the close of school, after announcing that he had signed a pro grid contract with the Dallas Texans. (See story, page six.)
