Walter Reynolds and Mrs. Callie Long Reynolds were parents of Warren Reynolds. Claude Weathers is now a mill superintendent in Gastonia. Tom Harmon and John Ferguson were clerks in the company store. Rufus Baker (father of Dr. L. P. Baker) worked in the cardroom. John Weathers was spinning room overseer, Mack Thacker was weaver room overseer, and Jake Keller was a section hand. The late J. M. Williams, of Kings Mountain, was then superintendent of the mill, which was the first in Kings Mountain and one of the first in this section.

Art Weiner Signs With Dallas Pros, Leaves Coaching Ranks After Year

DALLAS. (Spl)—Art Weiner, one of the greatest ends in recent collegiate history, has signed a 1952 pro grid contract with the Dallas Texans, Head Coach Jim Phelan announced today.

Weiner played one professional season with the New York Yanks in 1950 when he compiled one of the best records ever made by a rookie end in the tough pro competition, snaring 35 passes for 722 yards and six touchdowns. His average of 20.6 yards per completion placed him second among the league's top 15 receivers in that department.

Weiner coached football at Kings Mountain, North Carolina, in 1951, where he handled the high school team.

Play in the Cotton Bowl will not be new to the 6-foot 3 1/2 inch, 212-pound All-American. He played with North Carolina against Rice Jan. 2, 1950, catching 5 passes for 41 yards. Weiner was an All-Southern end at North Carolina from 1946 through 1949 and a consensus All-American in 1948 and 1949.

He tied Barney Pool's major college record of 52 passes caught in one season in 1949, then added 13 more in bowl games to eclipse all previous performances by college ends.

Adding point to Weiner's statistical record are the opinions of some of football's outstanding experts. Clarence (Ace) Parker, former all-pro star, called Art "as good or better than any other end, college or professional, I've ever seen".

Coach Wally Butts of Georgia rated Weiner "the greatest pass-catching end I've ever seen. Wallace Wade of Duke has stated that the Texan acquisition is one of the finest all-round ends ever to appear in the South.

In addition to grabbing 109 passes for 1756 yards in his four years with the Tar Heels, Weiner carried the ball 24 times on end around plays for a net of 193 yards and an 8 yard average.

Weiner was born in Newark, N. J., where his father was a member of the police force. He captained West Side high school's football team in 1940, then spent four years in the Marine Corps, including 30 months in the Pacific. Married to his college sweet-

Billiard Expert To Give Exhibition

Max Schaeffer, New Jersey pocket billiard expert, will give a free demonstration of the art at Pastime Billiards here Thursday night at 7:30.

Schaeffer holds a record for high run and numerous other laurels in national competitions.

Holsum Bread In New Dress

Holsum Bread, in a bright red wrapper, will appear in local stores Thursday.

Packaged in a bright orange-red, plastic coated wrapper, Holsum will be easily recognized and will make a colorful display in the stores where it is sold, according to W. H. Kelley, of the Holsum Baking Company, of Gastonia.

"Holsum is one of the most widely distributed brands in North America", Mr. Kelley said. "It appears on family tables in 35 of the 48 states, as well as in many parts of Canada. According to Mr. Kelley's announcement, the baking process and the formula from which the new, improved Holsum Bread is produced gives the bread a fresh, home-baked flavor and aroma, which is sealed in by the plastic coated wrapper.

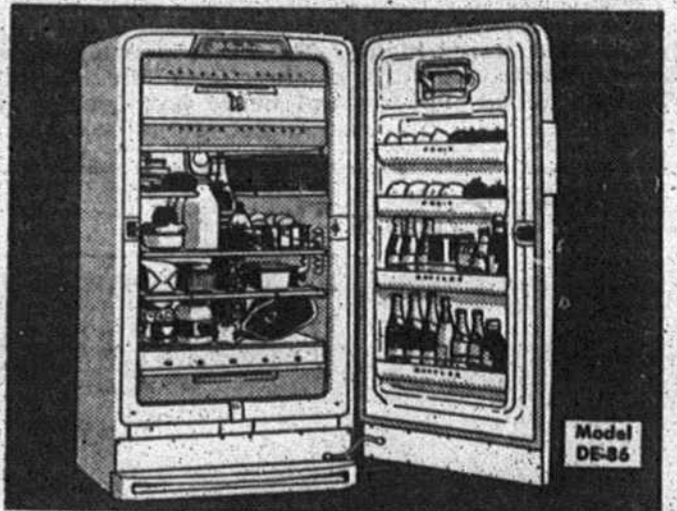

Holsum Baking Company, producers of Holsum Bread, has served residents of Kings Mountain since 1948. The firm was founded in 1927. The present plant was built in 1929.

Cash dividend payments by corporations issuing public reports amounted to $1,805 million in December, a decline of one-sixth from $2,139 million paid out same month of 1950.

heart, Weiner is the father of a 2-year-old son, Edward Gregg Weiner. Art is 26 years old.
