P. G. Padgett's Hosts At Rehearsal Supper

One of the lovely courtesies extended Miss Emelyn Gillespie and Franklin Pethel whose wedding was solemnized Saturday night was a rehearsal supper given Friday night by Dr. and Mrs. Padgett at their home on Piedmont Ave.

Sumptuous arrangements of gold and yellow flowers were used in the living room, mixed flower bouquets at vantage points in other rooms.

In the dining room the long table was covered with a white satin damask monogrammed cloth, a large silver bowl with larkspur, roses and mock oranges flanked with silver candelabras holding lighted tapers, with similar arrangements on the serving table and chest created a beautiful candlelight scene for the dinner which was served buffet style. On one end of the table was a large silver tray with casserole of chicken pudding bedded in parsley with reddish roses, duplicate trays of molded salad, asparagus tips with cheese sauce, baby green limas, a variety of relishes, and trays of hot rolls were on the table. Coffee was served from a side table, trays of lemon tarts with whipped cream were passed.

Places were found at small tables in the living and breakfast rooms and sun porch.

Upon her arrival Miss Gillespie was given a corsage of pink roses accented with blue flowers. Guests were members of the wedding party members of the families and out-of-town guests.

Ercelle Stallings Celebrates Birthday

Ercelle Stallings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stallings celebrated her ninth birthday Tuesday afternoon with a delightful "Hot Dog Supper" given by her mother at their home on Gold Street.

The back lawn of the home was the scene for the occasion where the supper was served with all the accessories dear to the childish heart. The birthday cake was cut and served.

Children were then invited into the home where a number of games were enjoyed among them, pinning the tail on the donkey, musical chairs and hide-the-candy. Prize winners were Phyllis Bumgardner, Sue Jean Wright, Brenda Hamrick and Sandy Campbell.

Favors of candy were given the following guests who had joined the afternoon's fun in celebrating Ercelle's birthday, Phyllis Bumgardner, Sue Jean Wright, Brenda Hamrick, Sandy Campbell, Nancy Hovis, Pucky Lewis, Joyce Plomk, Linda Saunders, Franklin Dean, Charles Burns, Douglas Carlisle, Frank Hoyle and Sidney Morrison.

King Of Hearts Club Meet In Reed Home

Members of the King of Hearts met Tuesday night with Dr. and Mrs. Nathan Reed. Duplicate bridge was played with Gene Timms and Fred McDaniel carrying off top honors.

When cards were laid aside the hosts served a dessert course with colas.

Snap dragons in delicate shades were used for floral bouquets in the party rooms.

Jaycees Name Committees

President Joe Hedden proposed a three-point program for the Junior Chamber of Commerce for the coming year at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the organization held at Masonic dining hall on Tuesday night.

Presiding at the first meeting since his installation at the annual ladies night banquet on May 9, Mr. Hedden proposed that the Club live up to the motto, "young men in action", that the club increase membership and that the club get and stay on a better financial basis.

The new president had previously told the members that the club could not "continue on our present course of inactivity and indifference" and that "we've got to get back to the good old days when we were a hard-working crew."

President Hedden named the meeting a "re-organizational, or re-orientation" event. He congratulated W. K. Mauney, Jr., on having done a good job during the past year and stated he felt that members of the club had brought about the present state of relative inactivity.

The club adopted his program for the coming year. "I have purposely stressed our weak points. We have done much good work and the picture is not too dark", were his closing statements.

Jack White, chairman of the beauty pageant committee, reported on work of his group to date and the club voted to invite a group of local girls to the next meeting to hear a former state contestant report on the state and national pageants. Single girls 18 or over are eligible for the pageants.

Yates Harbison made a report on the state directory, Rudi Wuenenbergh on the ladies night financing and K. E. Morrison, Luco Falls and Faison Barnes reported on the state convention.

The club voted to sponsor a "honkey" baseball game, Mr. White to serve as chairman. A sum of $13.80 was collected.
