Saturday Exercises Close Church School

Vacation Bible School will close Saturday at St. Matthew's Lutheran church. Parents are invited to the closing ceremonies at 10 a. m. when the certificates will be awarded, according to announcement made by the pastor.

After that a picnic will be held at the George H. Mauney home. Seventy pupils are enrolled in the school with ten teachers and the pastor.

B. S. Peeler, Jr. Speaks To Study Club Members

A delightful meeting of the Study Club was held Tuesday night with Mrs. Charlie Thomason at the Country Club.

Arrangements of mixed summer flowers with special emphasis on zinnias and dahlias were used throughout the club.

In the absence of the president and vice president, Mrs. P. Herndon, secretary presided.

Mrs. B. S. Peeler was program leader for the month. Mrs. Thomason presented B. S. Peeler, Jr., who in a most interesting and entertaining way showed colored movies of a recent trip he made to Mexico. He very graciously answered questions asked about the movies being shown, other activities and modes of life. He had quite an array of articles, pictures, silver, money scarfs and trinkets on display for all to see.

Prior to the program a dessert course was served with ice tea. Mrs. Oliver Ramsaur, of Allentown, Penn., Mrs. T. A. Pollock, Mrs. W. B. Shutt and Mrs. Claud Hambricht were special guests of the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Arthur, Miss Edith Arthur and Mrs. M. L. Plonk visited Miss Shirley Arthur in Montreat, Sunday.

Roy L. Boheler, U. S. 53061047, Co. E, 112th Reg. 28th Div., APO 11, c-o P. M., New York, N. Y.

Teague Genealogy Orders Invited

Advance orders are being accepted for a book on Teague Clan Genealogy, according to announcement by Loyd W. Teague, of Granite Falls, chairman of the finance committee of the Teague Clan.

The manuscript for the book, compiled and written by Rev. J. L. Teague, of Kings Mountain, has been completed, and the finance committee hopes to conduct a sufficient advance sale to publish the book within the forthcoming year.

Price is two dollars. It was pointed out that only one printing of the book is planned.

The Teague Clan will hold its annual reunion at Antioch Baptist church in Alexander county on Sunday, August 31, it was announced.
