Miss Betty Falls Is Shower Honoree

Miss Betty Falls, bride-elect of late fall was honored at a lovely party and shower Thursday night given by Mrs. Robert Allen. A bridal color note of green and white was cleverly carried out in the decorations and refreshments. Bridal games were played during the evening, prizes given to the winners.

Later guests were invited to the refreshment table. Here the napkins were decorated with a bride and groom. Bridal molded ice cream, individual cakes inscribed Betty and Leon, nuts and punch were served.

Each guest was given a miniature parasol, and directed to a table where the honoree found a shower of gifts, four complete place settings in her chosen china.

Miss Falls wore a blue suit with black accessories and was presented with a red geranium corsage.

Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt Fetes Miss Arthur With Party

Mrs. H. R. Hunnicutt entertained members of the Ace of Clubs Thursday at the country club and took the occasion to honor Miss Peggy Arthur, bride-elect. The guests were seated at several small tables in the lounge where special attention was directed to vivid arrangements of mixed fall flowers.

Contract bridge was played and when scores were tallied prizes were presented to the winners. Mrs. Paul Neisler was the recipient of the high score prize for visitors. Mrs. Fred Plonk and Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr. were the most successful players among the club members.

When cards were laid aside, covers were laid and Mrs. Hunnicutt was assisted in serving a delectable fruit salad and sweet course with ice tea.

Miss Arthur was becomingly dressed in a two piece black and white frock and a brushed wool hat rhinestone trimmed. She received from the hostess a shoulder bouquet of yellow hibiscus.

Those playing other than the honoree and members were Mrs. J. H. Arthur, Mrs. J. B. Simpson, Mrs. Paul Neisler and Miss Marion Arthur.

Dr. Y. E. Spake of Morganton and Charlie Spake of Shelby were guests Friday of their sister, Mrs. D. F. Ford.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Ramseur Clover Leaf Club Hosts

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Ramseur entertained members of the Clover Leaf club and one invited guest, Miss Helen Hay, Monday night.

The home was beautifully decorated with dahlias, berries and foliage for the event.

After dinner was served bridge was played at three tables with the hosts presenting high score prizes to Mrs. Joe Neisler and Arnold Kiser.

Mrs. Ramseur Gives Luncheon Complimenting Miss Neisler

Miss Patty Neisler, who will become the bride of John Oates Plonk on October 11th., was honored at a lovely bridge luncheon Friday at the Country Club, given by Mrs. W. L. Ramseur.

Miss Neisler wore a grey raw silk costume, with a panel of yellow down the side front extending from the shoulder to the hem. The full skirt was worn with a wide gunmetal belt, her grey felt hat, sailor type was worn with a veil. A corsage of matching yellow flowers was presented her by the hostess.

The floral appointments in the club were unusually colorful. In the entrance hall was noted a bowl of American Beauty roses, on the ledge in a blue hobnail urn was a mass arrangement of mixed flowers, lavender chrysanthemums and American Beauty roses in a milk glass pitcher graced the mantle over the fireplace and on the tier table was an arrangement of shades of magenta. On the mantle in the opposite room were white roses and glads in a brass urn, on the table in a black bowl were peach colored dahlias.

Nine tables were placed in the formal dining room where interesting progressions of bridge were played. Just inside the door as you entered was a wicker basket filled with yellow dahlias. The mantle held an interesting arrangement of marigolds; berries, green peppers and acorn squash as accessories. In a dough tray on a side table red sage, zinnias and rhododendrons made a lovely display, one unique arrangement was dried lotus pods and berries in a copper kettle. On a table in the back of the room was a large fan shaped arrangement of green foliage, spider lilies, and nandine berries, on the piano in a green pottery container were marigolds and balloon vine in a line arrangement.

Three progressions of bridge were played. Mrs. Arnold Kiser and Mrs. Joe Evans of Statesville were presented playing prizes. Hand painted tallies representing "Mammy" tied in with the favorite recipe each one had been asked to bring, these were presented the honoree with an index file.

The mammy motif was carried out on the luncheon plate with a face made on the peach pickle. Strawberry tarts were served for the dessert course.

Mrs. Ladd Hamrick and Mrs. Charles Padgett of Shelby and Mrs. J. S. Evans of Statesville were out-of-town guests.

The hostess gift to the honoree was a wood and copper salad bowl.

Mrs. Coman Falls Fetes Tuesday Night Club

The private dining room of the country club was in festive mood Tuesday night with a variety of late summer flowers when Mrs. Coman Falls graciously entertained the Tuesday night bridge club and one additional guest, Mrs. Bobby Suber.

Tables were laid for refreshments and when all had arrived pecan pie with whipped cream, chicken salad sandwiches and cheese straws were served with coffee.

Interesting progressions of bridge were played with top honors going to Mrs. Ed. Smith, Mrs. O. P. Lewis also receiving a prize.

Miss Patty Neisler Honored By Two Hostesses At Party

The lovely home of Mrs. Fred Plonk in Crescent Hill was a beautiful setting Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Plonk and Mrs. L. E. Abbott entertained with eight tables of bridge complimenting Miss Patty Neisler, bride-elect.

The entire lower floor of the home was decorated with a profusion of cut fall flowers in rich warm colors. Covers were laid when the guests arrived and places were found with bridal tallies. A salad and dessert course was served.

Four progressions of bridge were enjoyed during the evening with high score prize going to Mrs. Hunter Neisler, and low score award to Mrs. Phillip Padgett. The hostesses presented the honoree with their wedding gifts.

For the colorful party Miss Neisler chose a golden topaz taffeta afternoon frock with brown velvet accessories.

Prettily Planned Party Given For Two Brides-Elect

Misses Patty Neisler and Peggy Arthur attractive and much feted brides-elect were extended a charming courtesy Saturday morning by Mrs. R. H. Webb, Mrs. Hugh Ormand and Mrs. David Neill who gave a coca cola party at the country club.

The attractive setting for the party was achieved with colorful zinnias, dahlias and roses. Red and white predominated in the entrance hall where Mrs. Joe Neisler received the guests.

Large arrangements of red and white glads and deep red dahlias decorated the salon where the receiving line was formed. Heading the receiving line was Mrs. David Neill and with her stood the honorees, Miss Neisler and her mother, Mrs. Hunter Neisler, and Miss Arthur and her mother, Mrs. J. H. Arthur.

Miss Neisler was very chic in a beige woolen dress with matching knit beret worn with gold jewelry, brown accessories complemented with a corsage of bronze azalea chrysanthemums.

Miss Arthur had chosen an imported turquoise tweed jumper with which she used a black jersey blouse with matching accessories and a corsage similar to Miss Neisler's, gift of the hostesses.

Mrs. Hugh Ormand greeted callers in the hall which was decorated in pyra caniba berries. Mrs. R. H. Webb received in the dining room where autumn colors predominated, going from pale yellow into deep orange and reds, with a background of green.

The refreshment table covered with a dark green cloth was centered with a large tray of assorted tidbits, across one end of the table was a straw filled with harmonizing fruits, vegetables and flowers with a smaller arrangement at the tray in the center. Other trays of party sandwiches, cookies, potato chips cheese fingers, and hot ham biscuits completed the table appointments. Plates and napkins were given out by Miss Marion Arthur and Mrs. O. P. Lewis. Others assisting in serving coca colas and entertaining were Mrs. Harry Page, Mrs. Fred Plonk, Mrs. Robert Neill, Mrs. Charles Neisler and Miss Jean Arthur.

Small tables were arranged cabaret style around the room each centered with a low arrangement of magnolia leaves and red buds, the leaves extending the length of the tables.

Several hundred called between the hours of ten thirty and twelve. Out-of-town guests came from Charlotte, Shelby, Cherryville, York and Gastonia.

Mrs. I. B. Goforth Hostess To Twin-Table Bridge Club

Mrs. Johnnie Smathers, Mrs. M. H. Biser, Mrs. M. K. Fuller and Mrs. J. H. Arthur were invited to play with members of the Twin-Table bridge club when they met Tuesday night with Mrs. I. B. Goforth.

Large bowls of zinnias, roses, marigolds and other garden flowers in colorful combinations enhanced the attractiveness of the home.

Later in the evening the hostess was assisted in serving a delicious dessert collation of orange fruit cake topped with whipped cream and a cherry, cheese fingers, nuts and coffee.

High score for visitors went to Mrs. Johnnie Smathers, Mrs. O. W. Myers winning high score among club members.

Four tables were appointed for refreshments and upon arrival of guests ice cream pie, punch and nuts were served. Each table was centered with a rose bud, the honorees places were marked with a white split carnation corsage which they pinned on their shoulder.

Bridal tallies and score pads added an interesting note. Following the progressions of bridge prizes were awarded Miss Marion Arthur for compiling the highest score. The consolation gift went to Mrs. Charles A. Goforth, Jr.

Miss Arthur and Miss Neisler were remembered with crystal in their wedding patterns.
