Mauneys And Kisers Dinner Party Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kiser, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mauney entertained Miss Patty Neisler and John O. Plonk with a beautifully planned dinner Tuesday night at the Country Club.

Miss Neisler was lovely in a green taffeta dinner dress.

The living rooms of the club were decorated in roses and dahlias with red as the predominate color. Yellow dahlias were used in the hall and a green and white color scheme effectively carried out in the dining room.

The long table where the guests assembled was overlaid in a snowy white cloth. The central decoration was a silver bowl filled with white dahlias, fever few and green berries. This was flanked on either side with silver candelabras holding white lighted tapers.

The bride-elect's place was marked with an attractive bridal card complete with illusion veiling and bouquet. The groom's place card was a well dressed groom complete with tall hat. The other places were marked with cards in the bridal theme.

A four course dinner was served to the following: Miss Neisler, Mr. Plonk, Mr. and Mrs. John Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neisler, Misses Frances Summers, Cornelia Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Neisler, Chip Neisler, Ralph Nortcutt and Norman McGill, and the hosts.

The dining room with the silver bowls placed at vantage points about the room with silver candelabras on either side with the soft light from the tall white tapers made an enhancing setting for the delicious meal.

The Mauneys presented the honor guests with silver corn pots. The Kiser's gift was a silver fluted salad plate.

Mrs. Lucille Wright and family and Wilton Wright of Washington, D. C., spent several days last week in Clarksville, Ga., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mangum.

Miss Neisler Entertained With Luncheon In Gastonia

Mesdames Joe Barnett and Giles Beale of Gastonia entertained with an attractive luncheon Tuesday inviting guests to the home of Mrs. Barnett.

The luncheon table was spread with lace cloth and centered with a silver epergne with white flowers. Lunch was served buffet style, places were found at small tables, these were attractively set and centered with antique cups holding dyed gypsophilla with mist of malline and bows. Place cards held individual fortunes wrapped around an ash tray with books of matches in green and silver inscribed, "Pat and John."

Miss Neisler wore a frock in brown with matching accessories in velvet. She received from the hostess a shoulder bouquet of glamelias, and a silver condiment set.

Contract Club Met Thursday With Mrs. H. M. Heavner

Mrs. H. M. Heavner entertained members of the Contract club and three additional guests Tuesday afternoon at the country club. The tables were arranged in the private dining room where red and variegated dahlias were combined with blooming sultanias to create a decorative note of fall color.

Contract bridge was played in several progressions throughout the afternoon and when tallies were added, Mrs. Charles Carpenter proved to be the high scorer for club members. Mrs. Bill Fulton was presented the visitor's high score prize.

After several progressions a salad plate was served with coffee. Guests present for the social event were Mrs. Bill Fulton, Mrs. Jacob Mauney and Mrs. Joe Hedden.

Girl Scout News
On Thursday, September 18, 1952, Brownie Troop 32 met in the recreational building of the First Presbyterian church. We played some games after which we had a treasure hunt planned by Penny Cansler. Then we had our pledges to the American and Brownie flags. After that we had a treat.
