Mrs. W. R. Craig Hostess To Circle

On Monday night, Mrs. W. R. Craig was hostess to Circle No. 6, Central Methodist Church, at her home. Arrangements of marigolds and fruit, with a touch of the Hallowe'en motif, were used as decoration. Twelve were present, including two visitors; Mrs. Phil Shore, wife of the minister, and Mrs. C. A. Butterworth, president of the W. S. C. S.

Prior to the meeting Bill Briggs and Jane Ormand visited the circle and took orders for gift wrapping, to raise money for a Community Service project of the Senior M. Y. F.

Devotionals led by Mrs. Mildred Wright opened the meeting. Mrs. T. W. Grayson then gave a most interesting program on "Africa and its Needs", passing leaflets showing pictures of natives attending services, etc.

The business session opened with minutes by the secretary, Mrs. Baxter Payseur, who also read a note of thanks from Mrs. C. L. Fulton, a circle member who has not been able to attend the meetings this year.

Mrs. Yates Throneburg, Circle leader, announced that the women are asked to bring toys as a shower for the nursery department. She named Nov. 7 as World Community Day, when children's clothing will be collected and sent overseas to needy children. Especially are baby's layettes needed. Mrs. C. J. Gault, Jr., is to collect for the circle.

The leader gave out offering envelopes to be turned in at the General Meeting for "Week of Prayer Day", October 30.

It was announced that a reception for the new pastor, Rev. Phil Shore, and his family will be held by the church on October 26, following the Sunday evening service. Circle No. 6 is to furnish flowers for the occasion. Next Sunday, October 19, the uptown churches are to attend Central Methodist Church at the evening
