Forty-Four Students Are In Mixed Chorus

Forty-four students from Kings Mountain city schools have been listed as members of the high school mixed chorus. One of the functions of the organization is to sponsor programs and trips and an added feature this year is the football concession stand, which is sponsored by this group. Miss Margaret Cole is director for the chorus and student leaders recently elected are Maxine Eubanks, Bill Briggs, Shirley Houser, Shirley Falls, Sammy McCarter, and Ben Bridges. The chorus will be held October 19, November 2. Our share of the goal is $150, and we are sure that with your help we will be able to go "over the top". Mrs. M. B. Leach, reporter - There will be an out-door entertainment Friday night at the home of Mrs. Sally Hughes for the benefit of the spiritual choir of Mt. Zion Baptist church. They will serve with chitting stew, fish, cakes, pies, custards and drinks. There will also be TV Show, showing outdoors. Please come out and let us serve you. Plates 50c. Order your supper from us.

DAVIDSON SCHOOL SCOUTS To our parents and friends, we the members of the Girl Scouts, are asking for your whole hearted cooperation in our "Girl Scout Drive" this year. We are sure that you have heard about the Gastonia Kiwanis Club giving to the Negro girls a 63 acre camp site. On this site has been erected two cabins, a shower, two privies and a pump house. To our regret Kings Mountain has not yet built a cabin, but we are hoping to get one in the near future with your sincere help. Our annual drive for funds will be held October 19, November 2. Our share of the goal is $150, and we are sure that with your help we will be able to go "over the top". Mrs. M. B. Leach, reporter - There will be an out-door entertainment Friday night at the home of Mrs. Sally Hughes for the benefit of the spiritual choir of Mt. Zion Baptist church. They will serve with chitting stew, fish, cakes, pies, custards and drinks. There will also be TV Show, showing outdoors. Please come out and let us serve you. Plates 50c. Order your supper from us.
