Bid And Bye Club Met With Mrs. Joe Hendricks

The attractive home of Mrs. Joe Hendricks was graciously adorned with a wealth of chrysanthemums and other fall flowers on Tuesday night when she entertained the Bid and Bye club.

Tables were appointed and when guests had assembled a pretty party plate consisting of fancy sandwiches, potato chips and pineapple tarts was served with coffee.

Several interesting progressions of bridge ensued with the hostess awarding prizes to Mrs. Jack White and Miss Joyce Foster for receiving the two highest scores.

Those playing other than members were, Mrs. Jack White, Mrs. Sam Collins, Miss Joan Britt and Miss Kitty Falls.

Mrs. C. G. Dilling Hostess To Tuesday Bridge Club

Only members were present Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Charles Dilling entertained at her home on E. King Street.

Very attractive arrangements of chrysanthemums created a floral scene for the social event.

Bridge was played through several progressions and at the comparison of tallies, it was found Mrs. George Lattimore held high score for the afternoon. During the progressions, the hostess served a very tempting salad plate.

G. W. Sellers, Tommy Broome, Whitey Blanton, and Bob Moore attended the N. C. - S. C. football game at Columbia, S. C. Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Page were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Ferguson in Atlanta. They attended the Ga. Tech-Ala. ball game.

A large number of mothers were present for the well planned entertainment.

ARP Circle Met Monday With Mrs. John Cheshire

The Frances Garrison Circle of Boyce Memorial Church met Monday night with Mrs. John Cheshire for their November meeting.

Mrs. Garrison Goforth taught the Bible lesson, also presenting the program.

Mrs. Cheshire, leader, presided over the business session.

A social period was enjoyed after the business, the hosts served a dessert course with coffee.

Methodist Workers Council Plan Christmas Programs

On Monday night the Workers Council of Central Methodist Church met in the church basement at seven o'clock for a chicken pie supper, with a large number present. The supper was prepared and served by the W.C.S.

The film strip telling the story of a young lady taking a class of intermediates, and how she met the problems involved, was shown following the supper, by Paul Walker, Church School Superintendent.

Mr. Walker then introduced the following who spoke briefly: Mrs. Jay Patterson, chairman of the Board of Education, Mr. Clay Postum, assistant Church School Supt., and chairman of membership and attendance, and Rev. Phil Shore, pastor.

The group of teachers, class officers, councilors, and other workers of the church school then separated into three groups: Children's Workers, Youth Workers, and Adult Workers, for a planning session, bringing reports back to the group which assembled again.

Dates were set for the Christmas programs as follows: "Christmas the Beautiful", a modern drama by the Youth Fellowship, December 14; A Nativity drama by the Children's Department, December 21; and a sacred cantata by the Senior Choir, December 21.
