MRS. WILLIAM HOWARD ROBINSON

Miss Ruby Louise Crawford Wed Sunday To William H. Robinson In Church Rites

Miss Ruby Louise Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Louis Crawford of Kings Mountain, became the bride of William Howard Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berry Robinson of York, South Carolina in a lovely double ring ceremony Sunday afternoon at five o'clock in Oakdale Presbyterian Church at York, S. C. with Fred A Hopkins, pastor of the couple officiating.

The vows were spoken before a background of Oregon fern medallions, seven branched candleabras holding cathedral tapers interspersed with floor baskets of white gladiola and pon pom chrysanthemums.

A program of wedding music was rendered by Miss Mary Alice McDaniel, cousin of the bride and Eugene Grier, vocalist. Miss McDaniel played, "Through the Year" - Youmans; "Indian Love Call" - Fryer; "Because" - d'Hardelot; "Moonlight Sonata" - Beethoven; before the ceremony, and during the ceremony "Ave Maria" - Bach-Gounod, Mr. Grier sang, "Oh, Promise Me", De Koven, and as the benediction, "The Lord's Prayer", Malotte. The wedding march from "Lohengrin", Wagner was played for the processional and Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" was used as the recessional.

The bride and groom entered together, Robert Robinson and Neil Robinson, brothers of the groom, served as ushers.

The bride was lovely in a dress of white satin fashioned with a fitted bodice of Chantilly lace featuring a scalloped neckline, long crushed sleeves, tapering to calla lily points over the hands and a full ballerina-length skirt. Her two tiered veil of imported illusion fell from a rhinestone studded cloche of embroidered lace. She carried a white satin Bible topped with white purple throated orchid, surrounded with maline and showered with white satin ribbons and split carnations.

After the ceremony the couple and their parents received in the vestibule of the church. Later they left for a wedding trip to Charleston, S. C. For traveling the bride wore a black and white faille suit, black accessories, and wore a shoulder corsage of the orchid lifted from her bouquet. Upon returning the couple will make their home with the groom's parents.

Mrs. Robinson is a graduate of the Kings Mountain High School and is now employed as laboratory technician with Foote Mineral Co.

Mr. Robinson was graduated from Bethany High School and is employed with the American Thread Co. in Clover, S. C.

Mrs. Crawford, mother of the bride, had chosen for her daughter's wedding a grey wool suit with which she used black accessories and wore a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Robinson wore a grey wool dress with black accessories and a pink rosebud shoulder corsage.
