Large Crowd Attended Garden Clinic Wednesday

The Open Gate Garden Club sponsored a flower arrangement clinic Wednesday in the Fellowship Hall of the Presbyterian Church. The clinic was conducted by Mrs. Harrell Wilson of Greenville, S. C., a leading authority on flower arrangement.

The two session clinic was well attended. A luncheon was served by the club at one o'clock. Mrs. Claud Hambricht introduced the speaker, who was most entertaining while demonstrating the whys and hows of Christmas arrangements and showing how to use material we all have.

During the afternoon session Christmas decorations for doors and church arrangements were discussed.

Garden club members and interested ladies came from Mor-

Miscellaneous Shower Given For Miss Sara Kincaid

The home of Mrs. Dickie Tate was in festive mood Monday night when Mrs. Tate, Mrs. L. C. Pinnix and Mrs. F. R. McCurdy entertained for Miss Sara Kincaid, bride-elect.

On the mantle in the living room was a doll in full bridal attire, pink and white snapdragons were used at other points about the rooms. A large open umbrella was on the dining table under which was an assortment of gifts for the honoree.

Bridal games were played with prizes being awarded Mrs. J. B. Keeter, Mrs. W. B. Logan, and Mrs. J. E. Lippford. These were presented to the honoree.

As the guests arrived they were presented miniature corsages of sweet heart roses, on the back of each was a number. Mrs. Fred Kiser held the lucky number and received a gift.

Miss Kincaid was very smart in a red faille dress with a jacket trimmed in rhinestones and velvet. She was given a corsage by the hostesses of white pom pom chrysanthemums upon her arrival.

Green and white ice cream cake was served with coffee and nuts.

Out-of-town guests were present from Gastonia, Bessemer City, Shelby, and Gardner Webb College.

Patricia Ann Foster Notes Birthday Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Foster entertained Saturday afternoon at 5:30 with a weiner and marsh-mallow roast honoring their daughter, Patricia Ann, who was celebrating her 12 birthday anniversary.

The party was held on the lawn where games were played prior to the roast. The birthday cake was in pink, yellow and white.

Patricia is a sixth grade pupil at Park Grace school and has a perfect attendance record. She is a member of Mrs. Kitchen's School of Dancing.

Her paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Foster, and her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Falls.

Those sharing the gala event were Paula and Rodney Luckadoo, Fort Mill, S. C., Mary Simmons, and James Carlyle, Gastonia, Sherry Gregory, Belmont, Sonny and Sister Jackson, Kay Falls, Freddie Freeman, Kenneth Huffstetler, Kay and Jerry Mullinax, and Stoney Jackson, Judy Medlin, Marlene Weir, Glenda McFalls, and Becky Smith.

The honoree was the recipient of many nice and useful gifts.

Mrs. Frank Hoyle, Jr. Entertains Bridge Club

Mrs. C. F. Thomasson delightfully entertained members of the Twin Table Bridge Club Tuesday night at her home on King street.

Arrangements of fall flowers were used in decorations, tables were set and the hostess assisted by Mrs. L. P. Stowe and Mrs. H. C. Mayes served a congealed salad and sweet course with coffee.

Several progressions were played with prizes going to Mrs. F. E. Finger and Mrs. Claud Hambricht for scoring highest, and second highest among the members. Mrs. W. B. Shutt carried off top honors for the visitors.

Lutz Rites Held In Maiden

Funeral rites for Ray A. Lutz, 49, brother of Mrs. E. C. Bost of Kings Mountain, were conducted Sunday afternoon at Westside Baptist church in Maiden. Interment was in Salem Church cemetery, in Lincoln County.

Mr. Lutz, a Maiden textile overseer was killed Saturday afternoon when the automobile he was driving overturned. He was thrown from the car and suffered a crushed skull. Death was instantaneous.

The accident occurred on the St. James-Mays Chapel Road, two miles north of Maiden. John Lancaster and Bill Cooke, both of Maiden were in the car with Lutz. They were not seriously injured.

Surviving in addition to his sister are: his mother, Mrs. Junnie Hamilton Lutz; his wife, the former Miss Virginia Rudisill; 12 children; one brother, Fred Alfred Lutz of Winnesboro, S. C. and two sisters, Mrs. Irene Hewitt of Gastonia and Mrs. C. J. Franks of Gaffney.
