Robin Saunders Celebrates First Birthday With Party

Mr. and Mrs. David Saunders entertained with a pretty party Tuesday afternoon, December 5, honoring their daughter, Robin, who was celebrating her first birthday anniversary.

The party rooms were decorated with brightly colored Christmas lights, Christmas tree and old Santa in his sleigh.

Upon arrival each little guest was given a Christmas bell pin to wear and a gay colored balloon taken from the decorations in one of the party rooms. The children spent the afternoon playing with different kinds of toys.

The beautiful pink and white birthday cake holding one pink candle was brought in and "Happy Birthday" sung to Robin. Ice cream and cookies were served, the cookies decorated to resemble Santa, bells, stars and Christmas trees. A Santa filled with suckers was given as a favor.

After the many lovely gifts were opened pictures were made of the group.

Those present to help Robin celebrate her first anniversary included: Libby Trott, Linda Falls, Joey Hedden, Debbie Timms, Rocky Goforth, Pete Ware, Tony Ware, Bobby Logan.

Neil McCarter Honored With Birthday Party

Neil McCarter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McCarter, celebrated his sixth birthday anniversary Friday, December 5th, when his mother entertained for him at their home on Gold street.

The children enjoyed playing games and singing directed by Mrs. W. L. Pressly. All gathered around while Neil opened his gifts.

Later in the afternoon, the guests were served ice cream and the gaily decorated birthday cake.

Present for the delightful party were Dell Goforth, Lynn Cheshire, Edward Ware, Kenny and Patty Steffy, Rheta and Doyt Phifer, Wendell and Robert Phifer, Joan and Billy King and Ray Henderson.

Balloons were given as favors.

Miss Marion Arthur Shows Colored Slides Of Japan

At six o'clock Sunday evening, Miss Marion Arthur showed colored slides taken on her visit to Japan to members of the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship.

The young people enjoyed very much the many colorful pictures, and her interesting explanation of them, and learned much about Japan of today.

Brent Goforth, Susan Weaver, Gregg Falls, Mary Ann Morrison, Cecelia Morrison, Mrs. Jim Smith, Mrs. L. P. Stowe, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Saunders, Mrs. M. L. Houser, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Poston.

Kincaid - Bush Invitations Issued

Invitations reading as follows were issued in Kings Mountain this week:

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wesley Kincaid request the honour of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Sarah Mae to Mr. Bobby Ray Bush on Saturday, the twenty-seventh of December at seven o'clock, First Baptist Church, Kings Mountain, North Carolina

The J. C. Clary Family Hold Reunion Sunday

Christmas festivities were observed Sunday for Privates Charles and Robert Clary at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clary.

Both servicemen were home for a few days before reporting for further assignments.

Pvt. Charles Clary leaves Thursday for San Francisco, where he will sail for Korea. He has been stationed with the Army's Third Battalion in Fort Knox, Ky.

Pvt. Robert Clary will return to Ft. Benning, Ga. Other members of the immediate family at home to celebrate Christmas with the brothers were their two sisters, Mrs. Willie Seymour and family of Charlotte and Mrs. Al-berth Cothran and family of Bessemer City and a brother, Lloyd Clary, and family of Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Yates Throneburg Methodist Circle Hostess

On Monday night Mrs. Yates Throneburg was hostess to Circle No. 6, Central Methodist church. Her apartment was very attractive with Christmas decorations of candles, Christmas balls, and greenery. Fourteen were present, including one visitor, Mrs. E. W. Griffin, who is a Conference officer of the W. S. C. S.

The meeting opened with devotionals by Mrs. Mildred Wright who read the Christmas story from the Bible. Records of carols were played at the beginning of the meeting. Mrs. Baxter Payseur then presented a Christmas program of meditation, pictorial stories, Christmas poems, the story of Christmas in Japan, readings, "I Will If You Will," and "Our Christmas Presents," a talk, "God's Finger on a Man's Shoulder," and a Christmas prayer.

During the business session, Mrs. Yates Throneburg, leader of the circle, passed a petition for a Prayer Room in the White House among the group to be signed. She urged the members to bring good books or magazines to the church to be sent to Faith Cabin Library, Augusta, Ga., an extension of Payne College. Attendance at Prayer Meeting, General Meeting, and Spiritual Life Meeting were urged. The Secretary, Mrs. Baxter Payseur, read a letter from Sally Lou MacKinnon, Executive Secretary, Africa and Europe, which was written between Belgian Congo and Belgium in a plan, which stressed the deep need for workers and aid in bringing Christianity to Africa.

The hostess served open-faced sandwiches cut in Christmas motifs, cake, and hot coffee, after which gifts were delightfully exchanged among the members. Each member also brought gifts for a needy family, and the gift box overflowed with these gifts.

In conclusion a Christmas recording and a recording of the Lord's Prayer, made by James Throneburg, were played.

Methodist Youth To Give Christmas Drama

"Christmas the Beautiful", a drama, will be presented by the Youth Fellowship of Central Methodist church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock under the direction of Miss Kittie Low, Sutton. Setting is in a modern home, and the cast is as follows: Father, Bud Mayes; Mother, Jane Ormand; College Daughter, Jean Hicks; College Friend, Jo Ann Dixon; Older Brother, Eddie Goforth; Teen-age Sister, Mary Ann Beam; Younger Brother, Bill Bumgardner, and Grandmother, Betty Prince. Young people of the Senior and Intermediate groups are to assist by singing in the youth choir, directed by B. S. Peeler, Jr. with Shirley Falls as organist. Gene Patterson is in charge of lighting, and scenery is by Bill Hudspeth, Councilor; Bill Briggs, Bill Bumgardner, and Mr. and Mrs. Snooks McDaniel.

Youth Choir rehearsal is at 5 p. m. Sunday, with a light supper to be served at 6 p. m. by a circle of the W. S. C. S. Cast for the play will practice earlier in the afternoon.

Vickie Diane Jackson Celebrates 5th Birthday

Little Vickie Diane Jackson celebrated her 5th birthday Saturday with a party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Jackson.

Games were played throughout the evening with prizes and favors given to each winner.

Guests were invited into the dining room and served birthday cake and other party refreshments.

Those present to enjoy the happy occasion were Patricia Ann Smith, Gary and Linda Stewart, Nancy, Dorothy, and Gary Bolin, and Brenda Jackson.

Vickie Diane was the recipient of many nice gifts.

Dixon Circle No. 1 Met With Mrs. Humphries

Circle No. 1 of Dixon Presbyterian Church met Saturday night with Mrs. Thomas Humphries at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. P. D. Patrick, Bible leader, brought the Bible study which was a continuance of subjects taken from Colossians.

After routine business was discussed, the hostess served delightful refreshments.

Mrs. Sam Davis Hostess To Duplicate Bridge Club

Mrs. Sam Davis was hostess to the Duplicate club at her home Monday afternoon.

Fruit arrangements were used in decorations. Members were present for two tables of bridge.

During the progressions the hostess served a dessert course with cheese straws and stuffed dates.

When cards were laid aside and scores counted, Mrs. Fred Pionk held top score with Mrs. Druce Peeler and Mrs. George Houser tying for second place.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Broome and Larry Broome of Rock Hill, Thomas H. Blanton and A. R. Tilson of Greenville, S. C. spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Miller.
