Methodist Circle No. 4 Meets With Mrs. Enloe

Mrs. M. A. Enloe was hostess Monday night to Methodist Circle No. 4 for their Christmas party. A decorated Christmas tree with other Yule arrangements made a pretty setting for the meeting.

A social meeting was held prior to the meeting at which time cream chicken in pastry shells with other party goodies was served.

Mrs. Albert Dixon conducted the devotional which was followed with prayer by Mrs. A. H. Patterson.

Miss Kitty Sutton gave an interesting program on "Women Stars of Christian Faith" closing the program with prayer.

During the business, needs for a family were taken care of. After the meeting, another social period was enjoyed at which time Miss Grace Blanton, acting as Santa distributed gifts among the members.

Mrs. Jay H. Patterson Hostess To Bridge Club

Mrs. J. C. Bridges and Mrs. C. F. Thomason were invited to play bridge with members of the Contract Club at their meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Jay Patterson.

Magnolia leaves and nandina berries were used in decorations. Star shaped cranberry salad with party accessories was served with coffee, pecan tarts topped with whipped cream were passed.

At the close of the afternoon games, when scores were added, it was revealed Mrs. Hal Plonk had been the most successful player, with Mrs. J. C. Bridges receiving second high.

Mrs. J. H. Rudisell Entertains Bridge Club

The Christmas spirit prevailed in the home of Mrs. J. H. Rudisell Tuesday night when she entertained members of the Double Deck Bridge Club.

The beautifully decorated Christmas tree with the lovely wrapped gifts underneath and other corresponding arrangements made a pretty setting for the tables which were laid for refreshments, with Christmas napkins and tallies.

When all assembled Mrs. Rudisell served coffee and fruit cake garnished with whipped cream. Dishes of Christmas candy were on each table during the game.

Tables were arranged for bridge and four progressions were played which left playing prizes with Mrs. W. K. Willis and Mrs. W. M. Moorehead for receiving the two highest scores.

Mrs. Hal Plonk was invited to play with the members. When cards were laid aside, Christmas gifts were exchanged among members.

Mrs. Bill Page Entertains Magnolia Garden Club

The Magnolia Garden Club met with Mrs. William H. Page on December 5, 1952. Christmas decorations were very attractively arranged throughout the home.

Mrs. D. F. Hord, Jr. contributed a lovely arrangement of pine and red carnations in a red and black woaden sleigh. She represented Mrs. David Neill's team. Representing Mrs. Marjott Phifer's team, Mrs. J. C. McGill had an eye catching arrangement of Santa Claus and several sleighs laden with miniature toys. This was flanked with candles and greenery.

A very interesting and informative program on Christmas decorations was given by Mrs. Jimmy Spivey. She brought several things she had made to illustrate her descriptions.

All of the members were present. After the business, a sweet course, carrying out the Christmas colors, was served by the hostess.

Mrs. O. P. Lewis Fetes Presbyterian Circle

Circle No. 4 of the Presbyterian Church met Monday night with Mrs. O. P. Lewis with nine members present.

During the business presided over by the leader, Mrs. H. E. Lynch, a new member, Mrs. Mettner was welcomed into the circle. Plans were made for helping a needy family for Christmas. Mrs. P. D. Patrick sent each one a book mark Christmas card.

The Bible lesson was taught by Mrs. Paul Mauney, Mrs. J. W. Webster and Miss Helen Hay presented the program on, "The Joy Gift and Ministerial Relief."

During the social period, Mrs. Lewis served fruit cake with whipped cream, mints and coffee.

Mrs. Hugh Ormand Hostess To Tuesday Bridge Club

Mrs. Hugh Ormand entertained members of the Tuesday Afternoon Bridge Club this week at her home on West King Street. The attractive home was a gracious setting for the party, adorned with Christmas decorations. The tables were set up in the den.

Contract bridge was the game of the afternoon and at the conclusion of the last progression, Mrs. W. L. Ramseur was presented high score for club members. Mrs. Sam Davis received the visitor's top score prize.

Other guests in the party group other than club members were Mrs. Sam Davis, Mrs. Johnnie Smathers and Mrs. Ben Spedel.

During progressions tables were laid and the hostess served a salad course, decorated cakes and colas.
