R. E. Lee Citizens Club Give Christmas Program
The Robert E. Lee Junior American Citizens Club of Miss Annie Roberts fourth grade at West School enjoyed a very delightful Christmas program during their regular club meeting Friday afternoon. "Pucky" Lewis was the program chairman. The following children presented musical numbers on the piano, trumpet, clarinet and flute: Linda Sanders, Phyllis Bumgardner, Joyce Plonk, Nancy Hovis, Sue Jean Wright, Bruce Thorburn and Ercelle Stallings. The group gave a choral reading of Luke 2:8-14 and Charles Burns gave a Christmas Prayer. A poem "If I could Be Santa Claus" by "Sandy" Campbell. Joyce Plonk and Nancy Hovis were assisted by their mothers in serving decorated cookies, candies and a drink to the class.

The spacious living room of Mrs. Packard Elliott's home near Shelby, was made festive with Christmas decorations to receive the Open Gate Garden Club for their regular meeting last Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. E. H. Crouch was point hostess. Mrs. Tom Stamey and Mrs. Tom Palmer were visitors to the club.

Mrs. Sam Stallings presented a very informative program on "Traditions and Customs of Christmas," including the origins and legends of Christmas old and new in many lands. In closing she showed to the group many colored illustrations of beautiful Christmas arrangements.

Mrs. L. E. Abbott Bridge Club Hostess

Only members were present Thursday afternoon when the Ace of Clubs met with Mrs. L. E. Abbott at her home on Crescent Hill Road.

Bridge was played progressively with Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Jr. winning high score and Mrs. Amos Dean second high.

A dessert course was served with coffee during the plays.

Mrs. Geo. Houser Fetes Kings Mtn. Garden Club

The Kings Mountain Garden Club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. George Houser at her home on East Ridge Street.

Three arrangements were brought in by members, these were used in decorations. On a table in the hall a beautiful grouping of red painted berries and sprigs of boxwood in a red crystal ring with three red candles accentuated the center, this was made by Mrs. J. B. Keeter.

On a table in the living room was a milk glass compote containing mandina berries and burford holly made by Mrs. Carl Mauney. On a chest of drawers, was a lovely display of greenery combined with blooming flowers, for this, Mrs. Padgett used a white porcelain bowl as the container combining white gladioli, red carnations and magnolia leaves with a white madonna as the center of interest.

Mrs. M. A. Ware gave a most interesting program on "Grandmother's Christmas Goodies". Several recipes from the Gay Nineties cookbook were read. Mrs. Ware completed the program with an original poem on "Grandmother's Day."

During the business, Mrs. Carl Mauney, president of the club, appointed a committee for the Christmas Door Decorations, plans were discussed for the Christmas sale which is to be held Friday afternoon, December 19th at the Woman's Club.

At the conclusion of the program, an auction sale was held with cookies and dainties brought in by the members being sold.

Mrs. Houser served spice cake, cheese straws and coffee. A small Christmas corsage was on each plate.

Saturday Luncheon Honors Two Brides-Elect

The home of Mrs. Wayne Church in Bessemer City was the scene of a perfectly planned luncheon on Saturday when Mrs. Church, Mrs. Frank Sisk and Mrs. W. B. Logan entertained for Miss Sarah Alexander of Greenville, S. C. and Miss Sara Mae Kincaid, brides-elect of the month.

The home was lovely with the seasonal decorations of silver manilla leaves, silver and gold berries, long leaf pine cones. The decorations were also emphasized with many lighted candles.

Luncheon was served buffet style from the dining table which was covered with a red satin cloth, centered with a bowl of silver leaves and berries interspersed with red carnations.

The honoree tables were marked with miniature brides, their places marked with a gift of silver in their chosen pattern. On the other tables were wedding bells with Sara inscribed on either side. The bells were tied with ribbons and fern. Placed invitingly on the tables were platters of cream chicken in pastry shells, hot rolls, congealed cranberry salad, creamed peas with whole button onions, Hawaiian orange potato cups, bell shaped cakes and ice cream was served for dessert.

Out-of-town guests were Misses Patricia Smith and Sue Vance of Boiling Springs and Miss Reta Gamble of Charlotte.
