Yule Programs Set At First Nazarene

Two special Christmas programs have been scheduled for First Church of the Nazarene, according to announcement by the pastor, Rev. C. E. McKenzie. On Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock, the children of the church will present their Christmas program, with the renditions including carols, recitations and solos. The program will be directed by Mrs. Martin Shytle. The annual Christmas treat will be distributed at the close of the program.

On Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock, the pageant, "The Scarlet Ribbon," will be presented at the church. It is under the direction of Mrs. Lila Croft.

In the cast are: Martha, Elizabeth Croft; Jimmie, Martin Frederick; Grandma, Polly Clack; Judy, Dorothy Croft; Trudy, Beatrice Moss; Mary, Linda Hoyle; Joseph, Joe Biddix; Angel, Mable Lee Cleary; Inez, Inez Odell; Isaiah, Wesley Moss; Micah, Marshall Croft; Simeon, Wesley Moss; Shepherds, Herman Bollin, W. T. Cleary, Carl Welch; Narrator, Kay Henderson.

At the close of the Pageant Gifts will be distributed.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for their many expressions of sympathy shown at the death of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Rachel Clark.

MRS. CURTIS HARDIN AND FAMILY.

Grover Girls Win, Boys Lose

Grover and Fallston divided a county league double header at Fallston Tuesday night, the Grover sextet remaining undefeated with a 68-41 win and the Fallston boys taking a close scrap 34-26. Peggy Keeter rimmed 41 points to pace the Grover girls, who started with a fast initial period (21-4) and finished strong to stay out front.

Sue Keeter had 10 points, Treva Ponder 9 and Betty Watterson 6 and Ruth Wright paced the losers with 22 markers.

The Grover guards held the losers to nine less field goals in the fast scrap.

In the boys contest, Fallston took a three-point first period lead which the visitors cut to a slim marker at the half. Grover out-scored the winners 8-2 in the third canto to take the lead but Fallston came back strong in the final chapter (16-3) to wrap the game up.

Tommy Keeter had 9 points to pace the losers attack, R. Dixon had 12 for the winners.

Bethware's Cagers Lose Two to Belwood

Belwood stopped Bethware in two county loop games at Belwood Tuesday night, the girls by 74-48 and the boys 49-27.

Janelle Anthony hit for 20 points and Laura Morris 19 as the Bethware girls began finding the range—but the attack couldn't cope with the hot Belwood machine.

Margaret Watterson hit 32 points for the winners.

The Bethware boys stayed close until the half when the Belwood attack slipped away. Jacob Dixon had 11 points to pace the losers, while Ervin McSwain hit for five and Dean Huskey for four.
