

Mrs. Jackson's Mother Passes

Funeral rites for Mrs. Mary Estelle Biggers Ashcraft, of Charlotte, mother of Mrs. Howard B. Jackson, of Kings Mountain, were held Monday afternoon at Caldwell Memorial Presbyterian church in Charlotte, with interment following in Sharon Memorial Mausoleum.

Mrs. Ashcraft had been in declining health for the past year and had been seriously ill for the past six months. She died in a Charlotte hospital at 6:20 Sunday morning.

Mrs. Ashcraft was 63 years of age. She was born in the Mint Hill section of Mecklenburg county on August 17, 1889, daughter of the late W. M. and Margaret Robinson Biggers. She had been active for many years in Charlotte civic and religious circles and had been a member of the Caldwell Memorial church for 40 years. She was a member of the Woman's Christian Temperance union, the King's Daughters and Ridgeway Bible Class of Caldwell church.

Funeral rites were conducted by the pastor, Dr. Charles G. McClure, and Rev. P. D. Patrick, pastor of Kings Mountain's First Presbyterian church.

Surviving, in addition to Mrs. Jackson, are her husband, Simeon Eugene Ashcraft, a daughter, Mrs. Harvey William White, of Charlotte, two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Wilson, Mint Hill, and Mrs. P. H. Hunter, of Charlotte, and a half-brother, Leon Biggers, of Miami, Fla., a grandson, and several nieces and nephews.

Active pallbearers, nephews of Mrs. Ashcraft, were Harry T. Ashcraft, E. A. Flow, W. A. Beaver, C. D. Wilson, W. O. Wilson, and W. H. Hunter, Elders and

Beef Growers Meet In Raleigh

All beef cattle producers are urged to attend the second annual Beef Cattle Conference to be held at N. C. State College in Raleigh, according to Howard Clapp, Cleveland County Agent. This conference will get under way Thursday morning at 9 o'clock and will close Friday afternoon.

One of the highlights of the conference will be an address by D. Howard Doane, president, Doane Agriculture Service of St. Louis, Mo. Researchers at State College will discuss the results of some of their latest work. During the conference, demonstrations will be given on fitting and showing, spraying to control parasites, methods of dehorning, castrating and vaccinating.

Another demonstration will exhibit the different grades of beef animals alongside displays of the same grades of slaughterer's beef.
