Bridal Courtesy Extended Miss Sarah Mae Kincaid

Miss Sarah Mae Kincaid, charming bride of the week was extended a pre-nuptial courtesy last Tuesday night by Mrs. Byron Hord and Mrs. Ray Smith at the home of the former.

Throughout the living and dining room, attractive Christmas decorations, utilizing white magnolia leaves, candles and iridescent balls, created a colorful scene for the event. The focal point of attraction was the brilliantly lighted holiday tree ornamented with vari-colored balls. Groupings of frosted white magnolia leaves with the lighted church in the center made a lovely mantel display in the living room. Other decorations in keeping with the season were used elsewhere in the room. A large Christmas decoration was used in the center of the dining table, and a corresponding motif on the buffet. Tables were appointed for refreshments, each centered with a candle and upon arrival of the guests a cranberry salad Christmas trees with party accessories was served with coffee, a complete dessert course was passed.

Tables were rearranged for games and interesting games of brides bingo were played with prizes given the winners. These were placed in a large basket and later presented the honoree. Climaxing the evenings entertainment was opening the packages and passing for all to see.

Miss Kincaid was very stylish in a black and white party dress. Upon her arrival the hostesses presented her a corsage of white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Jackson and family, Misses Annie and Elizabeth Sellers spent Christmas day with the formers mother, Mrs. Harvey Jackson on the Gaston Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Myers Entertained Store Force

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Myers entertained the members of the clerical force of Myers with a dinner Monday night at their home on Piedmont avenue.

The Christmas tree with the other Yuletide motifs made a splendid setting for the affair.

The meal was served buffet style from the dining table which was covered with a red satin cloth, an arrangement of silver foliage and balls with silver candlesticks holding red tapers making a rare centerpiece. Glistening candles were on the small tables placed in the living room and on where places were found.

Following the delicious meal, the group was entertained by Miss Myra Dixon of Gastonia who showed pictures of a recent European tour.
