Sylvania's 3rd Flash Photo Contest Opens
 A 1953 Nash Rambler Custom Convertible, a 21" Sylvania television console, a Bell and Howell 8mm movie projector outfit, room air conditioner, boys' and girls' bikes, and photo supplies are included in the more than one hundred prizes offered in the third annual flash photography contest sponsored by Sylvania Electric Products Inc. The theme of the 1953 contest which is open to amateurs of all ages, is "Folks Are Fun" according to Wilson Griffin of Griffin Drug Co.
 "This is one contest that the whole family can get in on," said Mr. Griffin, "shots of people being funny, enjoying games, parties, hobbies — children playing — in fact, any photo of people having fun can win a wonderful prize."
 "Folks Are Fun" contest is open to anyone living in the United States or its possessions except employees of Sylvania, its advertising agencies or photolamp dealers and their families and professional photographers.
 The Junior Contest Division is open to boys and girls under 18 years of age and the Senior Division is open to amateur photographers 18 years of age or over.
 Pictures should illustrate the theme "Folks Are Fun" and all prints must be in black and white, no smaller than 2 1/4 x 2 1/4 and not previously published commercially. All pictures must be accompanied by the printed circle showing the bulb size from the outer wrapper or sleeve of any Sylvania flashbulb.
 Pictures will be judged on the basis of story-telling value, originality of photograph in expressing the "Folks Are Fun" theme and photographic quality. Entries must be postmarked no later than April 30, 1953 and addressed to Sylvania "Folks Are Fun" Contest, P. O. Box 232, Boston 1, Massachusetts.
 Official entry blanks and details may be obtained from Griffin Drug Co.
