Mrs. J. E. Herndon Hostess To Kings Mountain Garden Club

Mrs. J. E. Herndon was hostess to the Kings Mountain Garden Club Wednesday afternoon for its March meeting. Spring flower arrangements were noted throughout the home.

Mrs. J. A. Neisler, program chairman, presented Mrs. Frank Summers, who gave a very interesting talk on "Mulch".

Many beautiful specimens were on display and unusual and beautiful mantel arrangements were brought by Mrs. Howard Jackson, Mrs. John Cheshire and Mrs. Vernon Crosby.

After the business session, presided over by Mrs. Carl Mauney, president, the hostess served a salad and sweet course.

Mrs. Jacob Cooper gave a very interesting and informative report of the National Council of Garden Clubs.

During the business session, Mrs. Davis called attention to the Garden School No. 3 in Hickory, March 16, 17, and 18. Chairman of the activities committee, Mrs. Paul Neisler, expressed appreciation to all for the splendid cooperation concerning Mrs. Forts coming on March 19.

Arrangements for the month were of jonquils. Mrs. Paul Neisler used a black metal vase with jonquils combined with galax leaves and pine branches. A variety of jonquils with blooming forsythia branches and ivy tendrils was arranged by Mrs. Aubrey Mauney.

Mrs. Patterson was assisted in serving a tempting dessert course and coffee.
