Cake Cutting Saturday For Miss Helen Ledford

A beautiful green and white cake cutting was given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ledford at their home honoring their daughter, Miss Helen Sue Ledford, whose marriage to Burnie Allen was solemnized Sunday afternoon.

Miss Ledford had selected as her costume for the occasion a white dress with which she wore pink accessories.

The refreshment table was covered with a white cloth, where a green and white three tiered cake held the spotlight as a centerpiece.

Members of the wedding party and the two families were present.

Mrs. J. O. Plonk, Jr. Gives Bridge Parties

Mrs. John O. Plonk, Jr., entertained with two prettily planned bridge parties Tuesday at her home in Crescent Circle.

The first party was given in the afternoon when guests were invited to make up three tables for bridge.

An original design of decor utilizing gardenias and green foliage, the silver pitcher with the gladioli and lilies, and the pink roses in silver containers created picturesque focal points throughout the home.

The guests enjoyed the game in progressions and when cards were laid aside, scores were added and Mrs. Paul M. Neisler, proved to be the recipient of the high score award. Mrs. J. H. Arthur was runner up and received second high award. Mrs. Ben Hudson, a recent bride, received a guest gift in linen.

Mrs. Bobbie Maynard of Key West, Florida was an out-of-town guest.

Tuesday night, guests were invited to make up four tables for bridge.

After several interesting progressions, it was revealed Mrs. Bruce Thorburn had scored the highest with Mrs. C. T. Carpenter, Jr., runner up. Each received attractive gifts.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Tommie Harper in serving an enticing party plate of salad, sandwiches, sweets, and fruit punch.

Mrs. M. A. Ware, Jr. Gives Brides-Maids Luncheon

Saturday at one o'clock, Mrs. M. A. Ware, Jr., entertained at the Country Club with an exceptionally lovely luncheon for Miss Barbara Gault, bride-elect of Sunday, and her bridal attendants.

The bride-elect chose a chic, sunback dress in grey taffeta rhinestone trimmed, using white accessories.

A color scheme of pink and white was used throughout the dining room. On the beautifully appointed table, the hostess used white imported mats. At one end of the table an arrangement of pink and white carnations, daisies, and gypsophila was used as a background for white tapering candles. A garland of pink gypsophila and white carnations was entwined down the table to form an "S." The guests found their places with place cards decorated with sweetheart roses, the bride's place being marked with a corsage of pink rhododendrons.

An arrangement of pink Queen Anne's lace, white gladioli and daisies in an antique white glove container was used on the mantel with white candles.

On the console table a vinelf compote of milk glass contained white gladioli, pink carnations, and daisies.

After the two course luncheon was served, the bride-elect presented her attendants ring-shaped pearl earrings, which they wore in the wedding.

Mrs. Claude Hambright Fetes Contract Bridge Club

Mrs. Claude Hambright delightfully entertained members of the Contract Club and one additional guest at her home Tuesday afternoon.

Hermacallis lilies and magnolia were used in the decorative decor.

Tables were appointed and when guests assembled, ice cream, cake, and tea was served.

Bridge was played in progressions which left playing prizes with Mrs. W. B. Shutt and Mrs. Marshall Heavner for making the two highest scores.

Mrs. Shutt was a special guest of the hostess.

Mrs. H. C. Mayes Entertains Entre Nous Bridge Club

The home of Mrs. H. C. Mayes was in festive mood Tuesday afternoon when she entertained members of the Entre-Nous Club. Red and white snapdragons and mixed arrangements were placed at vantage points about the home.

At refreshment time the hostess served homemade ice cream and pound cake.

Scores were tallied, which revealed Mrs. O. O. Jackson had been the most successful player with Mrs. Boyer Murray runner up and receiving second high prize.
