Miss Barbara Gault Feted With Drop-In Party

Miss Randy Logan entertained Thursday afternoon at her home on North Morgan street with a delightfully informal drop-in party planned to honor Miss Barbara Gault of Kings Mountain, bride-elect of Sunday, to whom Miss Logan was honorary bridesmaid at the ceremony. Sharing honors were Miss Betty Jo Ramsey, whose marriage was an event of Wednesday evening and Miss Diana Walker of Corona, California, cousin of the hostess.

Miss Eloise Jarrett welcomed guests at the door and Miss Logan presented her honorees who received informally with Mrs. Joe Ramsey, mother of Miss Ramsey, concluding the receiving line.

Roses and feverfew were combined artistically for effective decoration in the living room and galardia and daisies were used in the den. The refreshment table, a Lazy Susan, was posed in the back foyer, handsomely appointed with hammered silver and decorated with a low design of shasta daisies.

Refreshments included colas, attractive sandwiches, sand dabs, cookies and potato chips. Assisting the guests in serving themselves were Mrs. Yates McSwain, aunt of the hostess, Miss Martha Cannon, Misses Suzanne, Betsy and Linda Logan, sisters of the hostess.

Miss Gault, Miss Ramsey and Miss Walker received honor gifts from Miss Logan.

Cake-Cutting Held In Patterson Home

Following the rehearsal on Wednesday evening for the wedding of Miss Jean Davis and B. T. Jackson, who were married on Thursday night, a cake-cutting was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Patterson with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Warlick sharing hospitalities.

In the living room an artistic arrangement of white gladioli and chrysanthemums was used on the mantel, bows of yellow roses were used elsewhere in the room.

The dining table was spread with an embroidered linen cloth combined with lace.

A three-tiered bride's cake placed on one corner of the table, was surrounded by a garland of gardenias and airy gypsophila which extended to the opposite corner where an arrangement of roses and gardenias in a crystal bowl was combined with lighted white tapers in crystal holders. Nuts and white and green mints in crystal holders completed the table appointments.

Mrs. J. C. Smathers, assisted by Miss Ramona Allen and Miss Barbara Gault served lime sherbert punch.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Warlick presided at the guest register in the den. On the desk where the register was placed the focal point was emphasized with red roses.

Guests numbering around 45 included the entire bridal party, immediate families and out-of-town visitors.

PARKWAY BOOKLET

A new booklet listing attractions and accommodations along the Blue Ridge Parkway has just come from the press. It contains detailed strip maps of the 468-mile mountain crest boulevard from where it connects with the shorter and older Skyline Drive of the Shenandoah National Park in Virginia to where it reaches the Great Smoky Mountains National Park in North Carolina. Camping, picnicking and eating and lodging facilities are listed conveniently and keyed to the strip maps and the mile-post system of the Parkway, which enables the motorist to know at all times where he is and to identify points of interest as he sees them. A copy of the 16-page booklet may be obtained free of cost from the State Travel Bureau, Department of Conservation & Development, Raleigh, N. C.

North Carolina farms with electricity increased from less than 10,000 in 1930 to 219,546 in 1950.
