Mrs. Ben Hudson Feted With Luncheon Saturday

Miss Rachel Plonk and Miss Nan Jean Gantt entertained Saturday at 1 o'clock at the country home of the Plonks with a lovely pink and green luncheon as a courtesy to Mrs. Ben Hudson, who before her marriage was Miss Shirley Houser.

The home was decorated throughout with Calla lilies, gladioli, fever few and other flowers in pink.

The luncheon was served buffet style from the dining table which was overlaid with an exquisite linen cut work cloth from Japan. Ten close friends of the honoree were present to share the gracious hospitality.

Mrs. Hudson was very striking in a sheer sleeveless grey nylon dress. She was presented a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds upon her arrival and later the hostess gave her silver in her chosen pattern.

Mrs. Arnold Kiser Honors Mrs. Hudson With Luncheon

Mrs. Arnold Kiser entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon on Tuesday at 1 o'clock at her spacious home on East King Street.

The occasion honored Mrs. Ben Hudson, a recent bride. Mrs. Hudson was very chic in a navy and white outfit, with white accessories. A decorative note of yellow and white was carried out in graceful arrangements of gladioli and daisies. Small tables for the serving of the guests were spread with white linen cut work covers centered with a silver container holding gardenias. Hand painted place cards were used. A very tempting two course luncheon was served.

The hostess remembered the honoree with a gift of silver. Those present were the honoree, Mrs. Hudson, and her mother, Mrs. George Houser, Mrs. David Kincaid, Misses Janice Al-
