MYF Sponsoring TV Talent Hunt

The Grace Methodist church MYF is sponsoring a TV Talent Hunt to be held in Central high school auditorium Saturday, August 15. Proceeds are to go to the Youth Educational building fund of the church. Admission is priced at 60 cents for adults and 35 cents for children.

The Sisk Quartet, well known religious group, will appear in person and introduce to the audience local talent. Fourteen winners will be chosen to appear on a television show as contestants at City Stadium at a later date.

Local persons are being invited to enter and are asked to telephone 684-J to register for the contest. Among entrants in the talent hunt announced this week are Brenda Ann Sweezy, Shelby radio singer, the Carolina Twins, who appear on TV, Joan Kilpatrick, pianist, Sarah Garver, state radio contest winner, Elizabeth Camp, pianist, Bobby Huskey, State College baritone singer, and several other outstanding religious groups.

First Nazarene Homecoming Set

Annual homecoming services will be held at First Church of the Nazarene Sunday, August 9. Following the 11 o'clock service a picnic dinner will be spread on tables in the Bonnie Mill grove at 1 o'clock.

A special musical program will begin at 2:30. The Hüllender Sisters, Mid View Baptist church singers; Jack Moss, from the Second Baptist church, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mitchem, Ellenboro singers, are among local singers to be present for the services. All members, former members of the church, and friends are invited to attend. Rev. C. E. McKenzie said in making the announcement.

ON LEAVE Lieutenant J. E. Herndon, Jr., USAF, is spending a 5-day leave here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Herndon. Lieutenant Herndon, who has served with the Air Force for three years, has been stationed at Perrin AFB, Texas, but upon completion of his leave, he is to report to Pittsburg, Pa., where the 71st is located.
