Miss LaUna Brashears Speaks To Home Arts Club

The Home Arts Club met Tuesday night at the Country Club with Mrs. P. D. Herndon as hostess. Mrs. W. L. Pressley, president, presided during the business. Mrs. Clarence Plonk, Jr., program leader for the month, presented Miss LaUna Brashears, County Demonstration Agent, who discussed many ways to improve home lighting and how to protect the eyes. Mrs. Brashears gave an exceptionally interesting and helpful demonstration on making lamps, the heights reading lamps should be, the kind of bulbs and shades to use, also discussing the type fluorescent bulbs to use. An informal discussion of home problems followed the talk. Mrs. Jimmie Simpson was a special guest of Mrs. Herndon and assisted in serving a dessert course of peach shortcake with party accessories and ice tea prior to the meeting. Mixed summer flowers with emphasis on pink zinnias added a festive note to the club dining room where the meeting was held.

Misses Marion and Jean Arthur have returned from a weeks visit at Crescent Beach.

Shytle-Gamble Ceremony Held Sunday At First Baptist Church

Marriage vows were exchanged between Miss Rheta Mae Gamble of this city and Charles Hoey Shytle, H. N. U. S. Naval Base Hospital, Charleston, S. C., on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Baptist Church. The Rev. H. Gordon Weekley, pastor of the church, was the officiating minister, reading the vows of the impressive double ring ritual to the couple. The altar was veiled in white, with floor baskets of white gladioli and shell pink asters posed against a background of potted palms. Cathedral tapers in seven branched candelabras completed the decorations. Miss Blenda Huneycutt at the console of the organ, and Miss Elizabeth Ann Denmark, soloist, presented the nuptial music. Miss Huneycutt's numbers included "Intermezzo" by Mesagnis; "Dream of Love" by Litz; "O Perfect Love" Barnby; "O Promise Me" Barnby; Miss Denmark sang, "Through the Years" by Youmans; "I Love You Truly" by Lippe; and as a benediction following the pledges, "The Lord's Prayer". Traditional marches by Wagner and Mendelssohn were used, and as vows were spoken, the notes of "Clouds" and "Clair de Lune" were softly played. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in her wedding gown of organza and Chantilly lace over taffeta, the off shoulder contour bodice worn with an organza jacket was attached to a very full skirt extending into a medium train. The finger tip veil of imported bridal illusion was worn with a lace mantilla fitted cap. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white purple throated orchid showered with satin streamers. Bridal Attendants Miss Diana Gamble was her sister's only attendant. She was dressed in a ballerina length dress of white organza lace trimmed, made similar to that of the bride. Her shoes were white silk shantung pumps. Her headdress was a small bunch of white satin leaves, arranged to fit the back of the head. Her bouquet was of pink baby rose buds, separated by sheer pink gypsophila and pink net entwined among the flowers with a large bow of matching pink satin ribbon. Fred Shytle was his son's best man and serving as ushers were James Lybrand, Roy Pearson and Paul Ham of this city, and William Francis of the U. S. Navy, Charleston, S. C. Mrs. Gamble had selected a navy and white crepe dress with matching accessories completing her outfit with a corsage of red rose buds. Mrs. Shytle wore a navy crepe dress with pink accessories and a shoulder corsage of pink roses. There was no reception. The couple greeted the guests in the vestibule of the church following the benediction. Misses Jean McRae and Faye Guy of Statesville, former roommate of the bride at the Presbyterian School of Nursing, presided at the register. Wedding Trip For a wedding trip to the mountains of Western Carolina, Mrs. Shytle was very chic in a summer suit of Orion and silk in pastel yellow wearing black accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. Mrs. Shytle is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Walter Gamble. She is a graduate of the Kings Mountain High School with two years of training at the Presbyterian Hospital School of Nursing in Charlotte. Mr. Shytle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shytle of High Shoals, formerly of Kings Mountain, is also a graduate of the local high school. He is now with the U. S. Navy stationed at Charleston. Upon their return from their wedding trip, they will make their home in Charlotte. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Gamble and Miss Margaret O'Brien, Bessemer City, Mrs. Jimmy Black, Jimmy and Virginia Black, and Mrs. John Spence of Charlotte, Mrs. S. Soudard and Miss Della Mae Gamble of Gastonia, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Guy and son, Charles, of Statesville.

Mrs. Buddy Sellers Fetes Dixion Circle

Circle No. 1 of Dixon Presbyterian church held its regular monthly meeting Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Buddy Sellers. James D. Newsome, summer supply pastor, gave the Bible study and Mrs. Thomas Humphries, circle chairman, presided over the routine business session. Following the business session the hostess was assisted in serving a refreshment plate.

Two Are Hostesses At Bridal Luncheon

Mrs. Paul Ham and Miss Jean McRea entertained with a prettily appointed bridal luncheon Saturday at the home of Mrs. Ham as a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Rheta Mae Gamble, bride-elect. The home was decorated with gladioli and magnolia leaves creating a lovely setting for the luncheon. In the center of each table were four individual glad bells centered with a pompong which was later given as souvenirs. The honoree's place was marked with a white corsage and a piece of her chosen china. A three course luncheon was served to members of the bridal party, Mrs. Shytle and Mrs. Gamble.

After Rehearsal Party Saturday At Women's Club

Following the rehearsal on Saturday night for the wedding of Miss Rheta Mae Gamble and Charles Hoey Shytle, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gamble entertained with a cake cutting at the Woman's Club. The club was appropriately decorated using a color note of green and white. Especially lovely was the bride's table overlaid with a white cloth centered with a large white wedding bell encircled with dainty fern sprays. Ribbons extended from the bell to the corners of the table where composites of nuts were used. The three tiered wedding cake completed the arrangements. After the bride and bridegroom had cut the traditional first piece, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Pinkney Ware, Mrs. John Spence of Charlotte presided over the punch bowl. Approximately 35 members of the two families and the wedding party and a few close friends were present to share the splendid hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Finger Bridge Club Hosts
Mr. and Mrs. Dan Finger were hosts to members of the Couples Club Friday night entertaining at their home on West Gold Street. Colorful arrangements of zinnias and glads were used in room decorations. Tallies were compared after the last progression of bridge and prizes awarded Mrs. Sam Suber, Jr., and Drace Peeler. Tables were laid for refreshments and a salad course with accessories was served.
