Pre-Nuptial Courtesy Extended Miss Jones

As a pre-nuptial courtesy to Miss Betty Kate Jones of Thomasville whose marriage to H. L. (Jack) Ruth, Jr. will be an event of Wednesday, August 12, Mrs. William Herndon entertained Saturday morning at her home in the Herndon Apts. with a buffet breakfast.

Miss Jones wore a smart sun-buck frock in black and white, and upon arrival received a white shoulder corsage, gift of the hostess.

Mixed garden flowers made effective decorations. A large glass top table was placed in front of the fireplace, dainty tendrils of ivy were entwined around the table, from this the perfectly appointed breakfast was served.

On a few tables was an arrangement of bridal greenery centered with a bridal doll.

After the breakfast, tables were rearranged for bridge and several interesting progressions ensued which left playing prizes with Mrs. Tommy Baker and Mrs. L. L. Lackey, Jr., for receiving the two top scores. An honor gift was presented Miss Jones by the hostess.

Mrs. Lee Roberts Opens Lunchroom

Mrs. Lee Roberts is announcing this week the opening of a luncheon at Phenix Mill.

The establishment will be operated as Phenix Lunch and holds a Grade A sanitation rating.

Mrs. Roberts said the firm would serve hot sandwiches, including Red Bridges barbecue, Fiesta ice cream, and other sundries.

State Youth Leader To Conduct Revival

Rev. Archie Luke, State Youth director for the Churches of God in North Carolina, is to deliver a three day series of messages at the Church of God here on Parker street.

The weekend messages begin Friday night at 7:15 and close with the Sunday night service.

Rev. Doc Wilbank, pastor, made the announcement and invited the public to attend.

Harry Bid High On Estate Tract

Franklin Harry was the high bidder at the commissioner's sale of the property of the late

Will Blackburn, of Grover, conducted on Saturday morning. The property on the Shelby Road includes a large number of buildings, two dwellings and outbuildings.

The bidding will remain open through August 11. During that period, the bid may be raised by a minimum increase of five percent of the present high bid. The Harry bid topped the $8,400 bid of J. B. Ellis.

G. S. Blackburn is the commissioner. Laying flocks in North Carolina produced 116,000,000 eggs during June this year.
